of wages or salary to be earned or to become due, in whole or in part, more than 60 days from and after the date of making such transfer, sale, or assignment shall be absolutely void. A written contract may be entered into between an employer and an employee wherein the employee authorizes the employer to make payroll deductions for the purpose of paying union dues, premiums of any life insurance, hospitalization and surgical insurance, group accident and health insurance, group term life insurance, group annuities, or contributions to credit unions or a community chest fund, or participation in any employee stock purchase plan or savings plan for periods longer than 60 days.

Sec. 2.   Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 181.08, is amended to read:

181.08   Payments, semimonthly. All public service corporations doing business within this state are required to pay their employees at least semimonthly the wages earned by them to within 15 days of the date of such payment, unless prevented by inevitable casualty. Such wages less any voluntarily authorized payroll deduction set out in Section 181.06 shall be paid in cash, or by checks convertible into cash at full face value thereof, without any service, exchange, discount, float or other charges, at a bank designated by such public service corporation located in any city, village or borough in which the employee to whom the check is issued is employed or into which such employee is required to go in the performance of his work for the company issuing the same. It shall be the duty of the corporation to make necessary arrangements with a bank for the cashing of these checks without such charges, or to reimburse any employee who has paid such charges upon request. When an employee shall be discharged his wages shall be paid to him at the time of his discharge or whenever he shall demand the same thereafter.

Approved April 2, 1951.

CHAPTER 214—H. F. No. 787

An act relating to limited partnerships and the cancelation or amendment of certificates thereof; amending Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 322.25, Subdivision 3.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1.   Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 322.25, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

322.25   Subd. 3.   Petition.   A person desiring the cancelation or amendment of a certificate, if any person designated in subdivisions 1 and 2 of this section as a person who must execute the writing refuses to do so, may petition the district court to direct a cancelation or amendment thereof.

CHAPTER 215—H. F. No. 889

[Not Coded]

An act relating to the issuance and sale of bonds or certificates of indebtedness by certain counties to provide funds for the purchase of additional grounds and the construction, alteration, repair, and improvement of necessary buildings for county fair purposes, and for the purpose of aiding county agricultural societies to defray financial obligations, and providing the method for paying such obligations at maturity.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1.   Certain counties, issuance and sale of bonds; purposes.   Any county in this state having more than 23,000 and less than 30,000 inhabitants, and having an assessed valuation of more than $12,000,000 and not more than $14,-000,000, and having not less than 23 and not more than 25 full or fractional congressional townships may issue bonds or certificates of indebtedness and [to] sell the same, without a vote of the people of the county, as herein provided, for any one or more of the following purposes: (1) to purchase additional grounds and to construct, alter, repair, and improve necessary buildings for county fair purposes; (2) to assist any county agricultural society of such county which is a member of the state agricultural society in purchasing additional grounds and in constructing, altering, repairing, and improving necessary buildings used for county fair purposes; and (3) to aid any such county agricultural society to defray its financial obligations now or hereafter incurred.
