

the anticipated period of usefulness of the facility providing the benefits. A proposed assessment roll showing such lots, pieces, or parcels and the proposed assessment on each shall be filed in the office of the municipal clerk, or similar officer, and thereupon the governing body shall order a hearing on the proposed assessment and shall cause notice of such filing and of such hearing to be published once each week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality. At or after such hearing the governing body may correct errors or otherwise amend the proposed assessments to make the same fair and equitable, and may thereupon adopt it as the final assessment. The governing body shall by ordinance or resolution fix the due date or dates for payment of assessments so levied, the interest rate to be paid on deferred installments, and the time and manner in which the assessments and installments shall be collected by the officers of the municipality or of the county in which it is located. Upon notice and hearing as above provided for the original assessment, the governing body may make supplemental assessments to correct omissions, errors or mistakes. If an assessment is for any reason set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction as to any lot, piece or parcel of land, the governing body may upon like notice and hearing make a new assessment or a re-assessment as to such lot, piece or parcel. Within twenty days after the adoption of the assessment, any person aggrieved may appeal to the District Court by serving a notice upon the mayor or clerk of the municipality. The notice shall be filed with the clerk of the District Court within ten days after its service. The municipal clerk shall furnish a certified copy of objections filed in the assessment proceedings, the assessment roll or part complained of, and all papers necessary to present the appeal. The appeal shall be placed upon the calendar of the next general term commencing more than five days after the date of serving the notice, and shall be tried as other appeals in like cases. If the appellant does not prevail upon the appeal, the costs incurred shall be taxed by the court and judgment entered therefor. All objections to an assessment shall be deemed waived unless presented on such appeal.

CHAPTER 676—H. F. No. 1286

[Coded]

An act providing that the state shall pay the premiums for liability insurance for state employees operating state owned motor vehicles.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. [15.31] State employees, liability insurance, payment of premiums. The state shall pay premiums on insurance policies insuring its employees against liability from claims for bodily injuries, death or property damage made upon such employees while operating state owned vehicles in the performance of, in connection with or incidental to their duties as state employees. Payment of such premiums shall be made from funds appropriated or otherwise available to the various departments and agencies of the state. The payment of such premiums shall not impose upon the state any liability whatsoever for the payment of damages as a result of a claim against the state employee.

Approved April 23, 1953.
