

full amount of all property required to be listed in his town or district, or has omitted, or made an erroneous return of, any property subject to taxation, he shall proceed, at any time before the final settlement with the county treasurer, to correct the return of the assessor, and to charge the owners of such property on the tax lists with the proper amount of taxes. For such purpose the county auditor may issue compulsory process, require the attendance of any person whom he may suppose to have a knowledge of the property, or its value, and may examine such person, on oath, in relation to such statement or return. In all such cases, before making the entry on the tax list, the county auditor shall notify the person required to list that he may have an opportunity to show that his statement or the return of the assessor is correct; and the county auditor shall file in his office a statement of the facts or evidence upon which he made such corrections. In no case shall the county auditor reduce the amount returned by the assessor without the written consent of the commissioner of taxation, on a statement of the case submitted by the county auditor or the party aggrieved.

EXTRA SESSION

CHAPTER 60—H. F. No. 97

An act authorizing the temporary assignment of a judge to serve and perform the duties of a probate judge in another county; amending Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 525.051.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 525.051, is amended to read:

525.051 Temporary assignment of judges. Except for the reasons prescribed by Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 525.05 relating to disqualification of a probate judge, if for any other reason it is necessary to assign a judge to perform the duties of the probate judge of any county, the chief judge of the district court of the judicial district in which the county is situated, upon the petition of any person, may assign any probate judge to serve and discharge the duties of the probate judge in any such county at such times as the chief judge shall determine. Such judge temporarily assigned to serve and discharge the duties of the probate judge in such other county shall be paid such additional compensation and be re-imbursed for such necessary mileage and expenses as the chief judge shall fix, but in no event shall the compensation exceed the rate of compensation prescribed by law as a salary of the probate judge of the county to which such judge is temporarily assigned. It shall be the duty of the county to which a judge is temporarily assigned to serve and discharge the duties of the probate judge, to make payment to such judge in the amount and in the manner prescribed by the chief judge.

Approved June 29, 1959.
