Chapter 168, requiring registration and taxation of motor vehicles using the public streets and highways, a nonresident serviceman, present in this state in compliance with military or naval orders, may be permitted to secure registration plates and certificate for his motor vehicle, not used for hire, upon payment of a registration fee of $3

- Sec. 2. [Subd. 2.] Licensed by the armed forces. The provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1965, Chapter 168, requiring the registration and taxation of motor vehicles and the display of license number plates shall not apply to a motor vehicle operated by the owner or his authorized agent while the owner is engaged in active service in the armed forces of the United States, subject to the following conditions and limitations:
- (1) That such vehicle is properly registered with, and displays the license number plates of, the armed forces of the United States in a foreign country;
- (2) That such vehicle is used only for personal transportation or for transportation of the owner or authorized agent's personal property;
- (3) That such vehicle shall be subject to all provisions of law applicable to vehicles owned by Minnesota residents except to the extent that exemption from said law is provided by this act;
- (4) That the exemption provided by this section shall be valid only for a period of 30 days after a vehicle has arrived in this state.
- Sec. 3. Repeal. Minnesota Statutes 1965, Sections 168.034, 168.035, 168.036, 168.037, 168.038, and 168.039, are repealed.

Approved May 17, 1967.

CHAPTER 517-H. F. No. 924

An act relating to assignment, sale or transfer of wages or salary, and exempting wages or salary to be earned in excess of the first $1,500 per month from the prohibition against assignment, sale or transfer for more than 60 days; amending Minnesota Statutes 1965, Section 181.06.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1965, Section 181.06, is amended to read:

Assignment of wages; validity. Every assignment, sale, or transfer, however made or attempted, of wages or salary to be earned or to become due, in whole or in part, more than 60 days from and after the date of making such transfer, sale or assignment shall be absolutely void; provided however, that the foregoing restriction against transfer, sale or assignment shall not apply to any assignment, sale or transfer of that portion of wages or salary to be earned or to become due in excess of the first $1,500 per month where such assignment is for less than five years. A written contract may be entered into between an employer and an employee wherein the employee authorizes the employer to make payroll deductions for the purpose of paying union dues, premiums of any life insurance, hospitalization and surgical insurance, group accident and health insurance, group term life insurance, group annuities or contributions to credit unions or a community chest fund, or Minnesota benefit association, or participation in any employee stock purchase plan or savings plan for periods longer than 60 days.
