Section 1. Minnesota Statutes, 1973 Supplement, Section 487.23, Subdivision 7a, is amended to read:

Subd. 7a. CONCILIATION COURT; LIEN OF JUDGMENT. Every judgment of the county court requiring the payment of money shall be docketed by the clerk of county court upon the entry thereof. From the time of such docketing the judgment shall be a lien, to the amount unpaid thereon, upon all real property in the county then or thereafter owned by the judgment debtor, except that no judgment rendered in conciliation court shall become a lien upon real estate until docketed in county court. Such judgment shall survive, and the lien thereof continue, for the period of ten years next after its entry, and no longer. No judgment, except for taxes, shall be docketed until the judgment creditor, or his agent or attorney, shall have filed with the clerk an affidavit, stating the full name, occupation, place of residence, and post office address of the judgment debtor, to the best of affiant's information and belief; and, if such residence be within an incorporated place having more than 5,000 inhabitants, the street number of both his place of residence and place of business, if he have one, shall be stated. If the clerk shall violate this provision, neither the judgment nor the docketing thereof shall be invalid, but he shall be liable to any person damaged thereby in the sum of $5.

Approved April 11, 1974.
