CHAPTER 162—S. F. No. 95

An act relating to state employees retirement fund, amending Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 352.12, Subdivision 1, and adding new subdivisions thereto, and repealing Section 352.117, Subdivision 3, and Section 352.66, Subdivisions 1 and 2.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 352.12, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

352.12 Subdivision 1. Death before termination of service. If a member dies before his state service has terminated and neither a survivor benefit nor a reversionary annuity is payable as provided herein, a refundment shall be paid to his beneficiary or, if there be none, to the representative of his estate in an amount equal to his accumulated deductions plus interest thereon to the date of death at the rate of two percent per annum compounded annually. The designated beneficiary or representative of the estate of a member who may have received a disability annuity shall not be entitled to the payment of interest upon any balance remaining to his credit in the fund at the time of death.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 352.12, is amended by adding the following new subdivisions:

352.12 Subd. 5. Death of former member. If a former member of the association dies and he has not received an annuity or a retirement allowance, a refundment shall be paid to his designated beneficiary or, if there be none, to the representative of his estate, in an amount equal to his accumulated deductions.

352.12 Subd. 6. Failure to select optional annuity or reversionary annuity. If an annuitant dies who at the time of retirement selected neither an optional annuity or a reversionary annuity, there shall be paid to his designated beneficiary or, if there be none, to the representative of his estate, an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the accumulated deductions to the credit of the annuitant at the time of retirement over and above the aggregate of (1) all annuities and retirement allowances he had received and which had accrued in his lifetime, and (2) the annuity, if applicable, payable to his surviving spouse under section 352.115, Subdivision .

352.12 Subd. 7. Deductions totaling more than annuity paid. If an annuitant dies who at the time of retirement selected either an optional annuity or a reversionary annuity, and the total amounts paid thereunder are less than the accumulated deductions to the credit of the annuitant at the time of retirement, the balance of such accumulated deductions shall be paid to the person designated by the annuitant in writing to receive the same, but if no such designation has been made by the annuitant the remaining balance of such accumulated deductions shall be paid to the representative of his estate.

352.12 Subd. 8. Death of recent annuitant prior to effective date. If an annuitant who retired subsequent to June 30, 1957, died prior to the effective date of this subdivision, there shall be paid to his designated beneficiary or, if there be none, to the representative of his estate, an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the accumulated deductions to the credit of the annuitant at the time of retirement over and above the aggregate of (1) all annuities he had received and which had accrued in his lifetime and, (2) payments made pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 352.117, Subdivision 3.

352.12 Subd. 9. Designation of beneficiary. The designation of a beneficiary or person to receive any accumulated salary deductions remaining to the credit of a member, a former member, or an annuitant, at the time of his death, as provided in this section, must be in writing and must be filed with the retirement board prior to the death of the member, former member, or annuitant.

Sec. 3. Repealer. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 352.117, Subdivision 3, and Section 352.66, Subdivisions 1 and 2, are hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. Effective date. This act shall become effective upon passage.

Approved April 3, 1959.
