Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1971, Section 490.15, is amended to read:

490.15 ESTABLISHMENT; COMPOSITION. The commission on judicial standards is established and consists of one judge of the district court, one judge of a municipal court, one judge of the probate county court, two lawyers who have practiced law in the state for ten years and four citizens who are not judges, retired judges or lawyers. The commission may employ or appoint an executive secretary. Members representing the district, municipal and probate county courts shall be appointed by their respective judicial organizations and the lawyer members shall be appointed by the board of governors of the Minnesota state bar association. The citizen members shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. The term of each member shall be four years, except that one of the lawyer members and two of the citizen members first appointed shall serve for two years. No member shall serve more than two full four-year terms or their equivalent. Membership terminates if a member ceases to hold the position that qualified him for appointment. Members serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1971, Section 490.17, is repealed.

Approved May 11, 1973.
