34.05 REGISTRATION BY NONRESIDENT MANUFACTURERS AND DISTRIBUTORS; EXCEPTION. Subdivision 1. Except as provided in subdivision 2, any person who manufactures distributes soft drinks or other non-alcoholic beverages manufactured outside of this state, for sale within this state, shall apply for registration with the commissioner in such form and furnish such information as he may require. Samples of all soft drinks or other non-alcoholic beverages so manufactured for sale and sold within this state shall be submitted. Each application shall be accompanied by a registration fee of $30-$50, which shall constitute the registration fee in case registration is granted, and one-half of which may be retained to reimburse the state for inspection should registration be refused. If the commissioner shall find that the samples so submitted are up to accepted standards, and otherwise comply with the laws of this state, he shall issue to the applicant a certificate of registration.

Subd. 2. A distributor need not register if the label of the non-alcoholic beverage offered for sale bears, in addition to all other required information, the identity of a licensed manufacturer. By identity is meant:

(a) The actual name and address including the zip code of said manufacturer, or

(b) An identification code or number consisting of the number for the IBM Numerical Code of States representing the state of origin followed by the plant number corresponding to a permanent list of members assigned by the state regulatory agency having jurisdiction. Such number may be printed, embossed, stamped, or perforated on the container label. If the manufacturer cannot be identified because of misuse of the identity code, the product shall be deemed to be misbranded.

Sec. 8. REPEALER. Minnesota Statutes 1971, Section 31.495, Subdivision 3, is repealed.

Approved January 24, 1974.

CHAPTER 3—H.F.No.679
[Coded in Part]

An act relating to wild animals; regulating the public exhibition of wildlife; providing penalties; amending Minnesota Statutes 1971, Chapter 97, by adding a section, and Section 346.21, Subdivision 8.

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1971, Chapter 97, is amended by adding a section to read:

[97.611] EXHIBITION OF WILDLIFE; STANDARDS, PERMITS, PENALTIES, INSPECTIONS, EXCEPTIONS. Subdivision 1. For the purposes of this section "wildlife" means any wild mammal, wild bird, reptile, or amphibian.

Subd. 2. (a) No person in connection with any commercial enterprise shall possess any wildlife in captivity for public exhibition purposes, except as provided in clause (b).

(b) The commissioner of natural resources shall adopt, in the manner provided in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 15, reasonable standards for the care and treatment of captive wildlife for public display purposes, including standards of sanitation. The commissioner, upon application of any person qualified by education or experience in the care and treatment of wildlife, may issue a permit at a cost of $10 to the person, under terms and conditions as he prescribes, to possess wildlife for public exhibition purposes, in accordance with such standards. Each application for a permit shall include the following: (1) a statement regarding the applicant's education or experience in the care and treatment of wildlife and the education or experience of any individual employed by the applicant for that purpose; (2) a description of the facilities used to keep the wildlife in captivity; (3) a statement of the number of species or subspecies of wildlife to be covered by the permit and a statement describing where and from whom the wildlife was acquired; (4) a signed agreement that the standards prescribed by the commissioner will be adhered to; and (5) other information as the commissioner deems appropriate.

Subd. 3. Anyone who violates any provision of this section or the lawful rules and regulations promulgated thereunder shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 4. Each permit issued under this section shall include a condition authorizing anyone authorized to enforce this section to enter upon and inspect the facilities where the wildlife covered by the permit are held in captivity. If, upon inspection, a violation is found, adequate time, as determined by the commissioner, shall be given by notice to allow the permittee to abate the violation. If, upon the expiration of that time, the violation has not been abated, the commissioner may request the attorney general to bring an action in the appropriate court to abate the violation.

Subd. 5. The provisions of this section do not apply to any municipal, county, state or other publicly owned zoo or wildlife exhibit, privately owned traveling zoo or circus, or pet shop.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1971, Section 346.21, Subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. No person shall cage any animal for public display purposes unless said display cage is constructed of solid material on three sides to protect the caged animal from the elements and unless the horizontal dimension of each side of said cage is at least four times the length of the caged animal. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to the Minnesota state agricultural society (Minnesota state fair) and to the county agricultural societies (county fairs) nor to any agricultural display of caged animals by any political subdivision of the state of Minnesota, nor to district, regional or national educational livestock or poultry exhibitions. The provisions of this subdivision do not apply to captive wildlife, the exhibition of which is regulated by section 1 of this act.

Sec. 3. This act is effective January 1, 1975. However, the commissioner may promulgate standards before the effective date of this act, to take effect on the effective date of this act.

Approved January 24, 1974.
