CHAPTER 376—H. F. No. 1672

An act to amend Laws 1929, Chapter 176, Section 1, relating to the zoning ordinances in villages and cities of the third and fourth class.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Zoning ordinances in certain cities.—Laws 1929, Chapter 176, Section 1, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 1. That for the purpose of promoting health, safety, order, convenience, prosperity, and general welfare, any city of the third or fourth class or any village in this state, acting by or through its governing body, may by ordinance regulate the location, size, use and height of buildings, the arrangement of buildings on lots, and the density of population within such city or village; may make different regulations for different districts thereof; and may acquire or prepare and adopt a comprehensive plan for the future physical development and improvement of such city or village, in accordance with the regulations made as aforesaid, and may thereafter alter said regulations or plan, such alterations, however, to be made only by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the governing body of such city or village. Provided, that after the adoption of an ordinance hereunder and within ten days after its publication such ordinance may be suspended in effect upon the filing of a petition signed by resident freeholders of the municipality in a number equal to not less than ten per cent of the legal voters of the municipality requesting that the question of permitting the council to zone the city be submitted to the electors at a general or special election, and the said ordinances shall not again become ef-
