

applicant and his successors in the title that the land shall be and forever remain registered land, unless withdrawn therefrom as hereinafter provided, and subject to the provisions of this chapter and to all acts amendatory thereof. All dealings with the land, or any estate or interest therein, and all liens, encumbrances, and charges upon the same, after the land has been registered, and while it remains registered, shall be expressly subject to the terms and provisions of this chapter.

Subd. 2. The registered owner of land in counties not containing a city of the first class may apply by verified petition to the district court of the county wherein the land is situated for withdrawal of the same from registration, which application shall be heard by such district court on not less than twenty days' written notice to all persons appearing of record or known to the petitioner to have or claim an interest in the property, which notice shall be served in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons in a civil action in the district court unless otherwise specified by the court. At such hearing any person interested in any manner in such land or who may be affected by its withdrawal from registration, may appear and be heard in favor of or in opposition to such application. After hearing the court may order that the land be withdrawn from registration, subject to encumbrances, liens, and other incidents of title then existing, and if so ordered shall require that a certified copy of such order, a certified copy of the original decree of registration, the owner's duplicate certificate of title, and all undischarged instruments memorialized on the certificate of title, be recorded in the office of the register of deeds at the expense of the petitioner. In its order the court shall reconcile any differences in description of the land as originally registered and as described in the last certificate of title. Upon the recording of such instruments and upon filing a certified copy of such order in the office of the registrar of titles, and surrender to him of the duplicates of the last certificate of title, the land shall be withdrawn from registration and thereupon shall become unregistered property.

CHAPTER 419—H. F. No. 104

An act relating to the salaries of highway patrolmen; amending Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 161.03, Subdivision 23.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 161.03, Subd. 23 is amended to read :

Subd. 23. Salaries of patrolmen. (1) Commencing July 1, 1959, each such employee other than the highway safety director, chief supervisor, assistant supervisors and sergeants hereinafter designated shall be known as patrol officers, each of whom shall receive a basic salary of not less than $385 per month and in addition thereto shall receive a salary increase equal to four percent of his last previous salary converted to the nearest dollar at the completion of his first, second, third, fourth, fifth, seventh and twelfth years of employment. Such salary increase shall be effective for the payroll period nearest the patrol officer's anniversary date of employment.

(2) The salary of the chief supervisor shall be $844 per month.

(3) There may be appointed one chief assistant supervisor who shall receive a salary of $751 per month; two assistant supervisors who shall receive a salary of $667 per month; nine assistant supervisors who shall receive a salary of $616 per month; and there may be appointed 20 sergeants, each of whom shall receive a salary of $547 per month. The supervisors and sergeants shall be appointed by law and have such duties as the commissioner of highways may direct and shall be selected from the patrol officers, sergeants, and supervisors who shall have had at least five years experience as either patrol officers, sergeants, or supervisors.

(4) The salaries established herein are basic rates of pay for the state employees enumerated and shall be placed in effect by the commissioner of highways on July 1, 1959. The highway safety director, supervisors, sergeants, and patrolmen authorized by this section shall each receive the sum of $3 per day subsistence while engaged in the performance of duty, and in addition thereto shall be reimbursed for all expenses necessarily incurred by them in excess of $3 per day subsistence while engaged in performance of duty.

(5) Every person employed hereunder shall be subject to the terms and provisions of Laws 1935, Chapter 254, and acts amendatory thereof.

(6) In addition to the complement now authorized by law, the commissioner is authorized to employ and designate a highway safety director, who shall supervise and coordinate the activities of the Minnesota highway patrol and the drivers license division and perform such other duties as the commissioner may prescribe. He shall have all the powers, duties and rights of a highway patrol member. His salary shall be $950 per month.
