

CHAPTER VII.—AN ACT to incorporate the St. Anthony Boom Company.

March 6, 1852.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Minnesota, That William Hanson, Joseph Libby, Franklin Steele and Ard Godfrey and their associates, successors, and assigns be, and they are hereby constituted a body, corporate and politic, for the purpose hereinafter mentioned, by the name of the "St. Anthony Boom Company," for the period of ten years, and by that name they and their successors shall be and they are hereby made capable in law to contract, and be contracted with, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, prosecute and defend, answer, and be answered, in any court of record or elsewhere, and to purchase and hold any estate, real, personal or mixed, and the same to grant, sell, lease or mortgage, or otherwise dispose of for the benefit of said company, to devise and to keep a common seal, to make and enforce any bye-laws not contrary to the constitution and laws of the United States, or of this Territory, and to enjoy all the privileges, franchises and immunities incident to a corporation.

Corporate name and powers.

Sec. 2. The capital stock of said company shall be fifteen thousand dollars, in shares of one hundred dollars each, and the Board of Directors shall have power at any time, whenever a majority in value of the stockholders shall deem the same advisable, to increase the number of shares to the amount not exceeding in the whole, twenty-five thousand dollars, and the stockholders shall be individually liable for the debts of said company, in proportion to the amount invested by each stockholder.

Capital stock.

Sec. 3. The individuals named in the first section of this act, or any three of them, shall cause books to be opened at St. Anthony Falls, in the county of Ramsey, for the purpose of receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of said company on the first Mouday in April 1852.

Books, when to be opened for subscription to stock.

Sec. 4. Whenever five thousand dollars of capital stock shall have been subscribed, and five dollars on each share so subscribed for, shall have been actually paid in, any number of the subscribers who shall represent a majority of the then subscription to said stock, shall be authorized to call a meeting of the several subscribers thereto, by giving ten days notice of the time and place of such meeting, in any two newspapers published in this Territory, and those of the subscribers who may be present at such meetings called, shall have the power and be authorized to elect a board of five directors from the stockholders of said company.

Organization of Company.

Sec. 5. The board of directors thus chosen, shall proceed to select one of their number, as President of said company, and shall choose one person Secretary, who shall act both as Secretary and Treasurer of said company, and who shall give bonds to be approved by the president and directors, to the said president and directors, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful and correct discharge of his duties as treasurer and secretary, and at such first meeting said president and directors shall prepare and adopt a code of bye-laws for the regulation and government of the affairs of said company, which may be altered or amended at any subsequent meeting of said board of directors.

Board of Directors, their duties.

Sec. 6. The said president, directors and secretary, chosen according to the provisions of the two preceding sections, shall remain in the several offices until the Wednesday immediately preceding the twenty-fifth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, upon which said Wednesday, a meeting of said stockholders shall be had, and a board of five directors chosen, who shall remain in office for one year thereafter, and annually thereafter on the Wednesday next preceding the twenty-fifth day of December of each year, a meeting of the stockholders shall be held, and a board of five directors shall be chosen for the ensuing year, Provided, that if any vacancy shall be created in any office, by reason of resignation, death or otherwise, the board of directors shall have power to fill such vacancy for the remainder of the term, Provided, also, that the president of said company shall be chosen from the five directors thereof, and a treasurer and secretary shall always be chosen by the said board of directors according to the provisions of the fifth section of this act.

Officers, their term of office.

The President—
his powers and duties.

Sec. 7. The president of said company shall have power to call a meeting of the stockholders at any time, by giving twenty days notice of the time and place of said meeting in any two newspapers published in this territory, and any three of the board of directors or a majority in value of the stockholders shall have the like power to call such meetings of the stockholders in like manner, Provided, that the duties and powers of the president, not in this act, specifically set forth shall be specified and prescribed in the bye-laws adopted by the board of directors according to the provisions of the fifth section of this act.

Board of Directors, their duties.

Sec. 8. The board of directors shall meet at such times and places, as they shall regulate by their bye-laws. They shall fix the compensation of all officers of the company, and define their duties; shall by their bye-laws regulate the government of all meetings of their own board, and of the stockholders and generally shall have power to do all acts, for the benefit and purposes of the said company, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

The Secretary—
his duties.

Sec. 9. The secretary shall attend all meetings of the board of directors, and of the stockholders, and shall keep a just and true record of all the proceedings at such meetings and as treasurer and secretary shall perform such duties as the board of directors shall by their bye-laws prescribe.

Each share entitled to one vote.

Sec. 10. Every share shall be entitled to one vote, which may be cast by proxy; and at any meeting for the choice of directors, the five stockholders having the highest number of votes, shall be elected directors; and at every meeting of the board of directors for the choice of President, the director having the highest number of votes shall be elected President, Provided, at every meeting of the stockholders, a majority in value shall constitute a quorum, with power to transact business, and at any meeting of the board of directors, any three of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum with power to transact business.

Booms to be constructed.

Sec. 11. The said company shall be, and are hereby authorized and empowered, to construct, maintain, and keep a boom or booms upon the Mississippi river, at such point between the falls of St. Anthony, so called, and four miles above said falls, extending from shore to shore, as they may select, Provided, That nothing herein contained, shall be so construed, as to authorize said company to erect any pier or piers, between the head of the small or Boom Island, and at the head of the next or Large Island, or in any wise to obstruct the free passage of boats or other water crafts through the channel between said islands, or the pond east of said island, opposite the store-house formerly occupied by R. P. Russell, running diagonally to the head of Nicholet Island, in which boom or booms all logs and hewn timber, coming down the said river, may be gathered by the said company, and such logs or timber as shall be agreed upon, by and between the owner or owners thereof, and the said company shall be retained in the said boom or booms, or turned into the pond above the mills, east side of the Mississippi river, as may be so agreed by the parties aforesaid, and said company shall be held accountable for all neglect to keep said boom in good order and repair, from the head of the Island above the dam, and shall construct good and sufficient sheer-booms to throw the logs drifting down said river, to within one hundred feet of the west shore of said Mississippi river, and shall be accountable for all damages which may accrue, by a failure so to do. Provided, that said company shall not be liable for any damages caused by an extraordinary rise of water or freshets. Provided also, that the said company shall not retain any logs or timber, unless at the request of the owner or owners thereof, for a longer period than five days, nor shall said company be compelled to retain any logs or timber over twelve hours without a previous understanding with the owner or owners of the logs or timber. Also, Provided, That the said company may occupy the entire east shore of said pond by obtaining the consent of the owners thereof.

Boom to be kept in repair.

Sec. 12. The said company shall sort the said logs and timber, according to their several marks, and if required, shall raft the same out of said boom, sufficiently secure, to run to the mills, at St. Anthony, so called, and shall deliver the same to the owners thereof, at or near the foot of said boom, or may turn into said pond east of the Mississippi, all such logs or hewn timber, which the owner or owners thereof may request. Provided, that nothing herein contained, shall be so construed, as to require said company to turn into said pond, any logs or hewn timber, after said pond be sufficiently filled, or contrary to the wishes of the owner or owners of the shore of said pond.

Sorting and rafting of logs.

Sec. 13. The said company shall demand and receive, and are hereby authorized by law, to collect the sum of forty cents per thousand feet for every thousand feet of logs or timber, sorted out and rafted, ready for delivery as aforesaid, at the foot of said boom exclusive for the charges for scalage of such logs or timber, and for all logs or timber turned into the said pond as aforesaid, the said company are authorized to collect the sum of twenty-five cents for every thousand feet of logs or timber so delivered, exclusive of the charges for scalage, but no charge shall be made by said company for sorting or turning out logs or hewn timber, other than that which the owner or owners thereof, shall have requested said company to retain, raft or turn into the said pond (as the case may be,) as above provided, and rafts of sawed lumber or timber of any kind, which may, by accident or otherwise, float into said boom, shall only be charged such reasonable compensation as will indemnify the owners of said boom for the safe delivery thereof, and the said company shall receive four cents for each thousand feet of logs or timber of any kind, that passes over the falls of St. Anthony, as compensation for sorting and running out of said boom.

Compensation.

Sec. 14. The charges for scalage, and the boom charges aforesaid, shall be deducted due, and shall be paid to the said com-charges.

pany, when the said logs are scaled and ready for delivery as aforesaid, and said company shall be responsible to the surveyor for the scalage of such logs or timber.

Liability for damage.

SEC. 15. The said boom company shall pay to the owner or owners for all logs or timber, or may give other logs or timber of equal value in exchange for logs that may by accident pass through the boom and run over the Falls of St. Anthony, so called, that were intended to be run into the pond at St. Anthony, previous notice of such intention having been given to said company.

Passage of rafts and vessels.

SEC. 16. The said boom company shall always give passage by or through their said boom, at all times, to any raft running down the said Mississippi river, and to all steamboats, keel-boats, or flat-boats, or other water crafts running either up or down said river, without any let, hindrance, or delay, by reason or on account of said boom.

Legislature may alter or amend.

SEC. 17. The legislature of this territory shall have the right to alter, or amend this act, at any time.

CHAPTER VIII.—AN ACT For the Restriction of the sale of Intoxicating Liquors within the Territory of Minnesota.

Not allowed to sell

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Minnesota, No person shall be allowed at any time to manufacture or sell, by himself, his clerk, servant or agent, directly or indirectly, any spirituous or intoxicating liquors, or any mixed liquors, a part of which is spirituous, or intoxicating, except as hereinafter provided.

County Commissioners to appoint agents to sell.

SEC. 2. The county commissioners of any county, on the first Monday of May, annually, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient, may appoint two or more suitable persons, who shall reside in different precincts, as the agents of said county, or within the precincts of any unorganized county, which may be attached to such county for judicial purposes, to sell in their respective precincts within said county, spirits, wines, or other intoxicating liquors, to be used for medicinal or mechanical purposes and no other; and said agents shall receive such compensation for their services as the board appointing them shall prescribe, and shall, in the sale of such liquors, conform to such rules and regulations as said commissioners shall prescribe for that purpose. And such agents appointed as aforesaid, shall hold their situations for one year, unless sooner
