filled.

SEC. 7. The town council shall have power to fill all vacancies which may happen in said board, from the householders who are qualified voters of said town, who shall hold their appointments until the next annual election, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified; and in the absence of the President and Recorder from any meeting of the town council, the trustees shall have power to appoint any two of their number to perform the duties of President and Recorder for the time being.

SEC. 8. The said town council shall have power to make, ordain and establish by-laws, ordinances, rules, and regulations, for the government of said town, and the same to alter, amend or repeal at pleasure, to provide in such by-laws for the appointment or election of a treasurer, town marshal, and all the subordinate officers which they may think necessary for the good government and well being of said town, to prescribe their duties, and determine the period of their appointment, and the fees they shall be entitled to receive for their respective services, when the same is not otherwise provided for by this act, and to require of them to take an oath of office previous to entering upon the duties of their respective offices, and may further require of them, a bond with security, conditioned for the faithful performance of their respective offices. The town council shall also have power to fix to the violation of the by-laws and ordinances of the corporation such reasonable fines and penalties: Provided, That such by-laws and ordinances be not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the United States, or of this Territory. And Provided also, That no by-laws or ordinances of said corporation, shall take effect or be in force until the same shall have been posted up at least ten days in one of the most public places within said town, and the certificate of the Recorder entered upon the record of said town council, shall be deemed and taken to be sufficient evidence of such publication.

By-laws, ordinances, etc.

Sec. 9. The town council shall at the expiration of each and every year, cause to be made out and posted up as aforesaid, the receipts and expenditures of the preceding year.

Financial affairs.

Sec. 10. The town council shall have power to regulate and improve the streets and alleys, and determine the width of sidewalks in said town, to regulate the public grounds, to erect a market house and regulate the markets, to remove all nuisances and obstructions from the streets and commons of said town, and do all things which similar corporations have power to do, in order to provide for and secure health, cleanliness and good order in said town.

Town improvement.

Sec. 11. For the purpose of more effectually enabling the said town council to carry into effect the provisions of this act, they are hereby authorized and empowered to assess a tax for corporation purposes, within the limits of said corporation, made taxable by the laws of this Territory, so that said tax shall not exceed in any year, five mills on the dollar of valuation, as the same may be found on the books of the county commissioners of the county of Dakota, at the time of assessing said tax. The town council shall also have power, if authorized to do so by a majority of all the electors in said town, at any meeting called for that purpose, to levy an additional tax as above specified, sufficient to organize and establish a fire company, and purchase an engine, hose and other necessary apparatus, for the extinguishment of fires in said town; public notice of which meeting and the object thereof, shall be given by posting up a written or printed notice thereof, in at least three of the most public places in said town, ten days before the time of such meeting.

May assess taxes.

Sec. 12. When any tax is levied, it shall be the duty of the Recorder to make out a duplicate of the taxes, charging each individual owning property in said corporation with the amount assessed on each item of property, as found on the books of the county commissioners of said county, which duplicate shall be certified by the President and Recorder, and one copy thereof shall be placed in the hands of the Marshal, or such other person as shall be appointed collector, whose duty it shall be to collect said tax, in the same manner and under the same regulations as other county taxes are collected; and the said Marshal, or such other person as may be appointed collector, shall immediately after collecting said tax, pay the same over to the Treasurer of said corporation, and take his receipt therefor; and the said Marshal or other collector, shall have the same power to sell both real and personal property for the non-payment of the corporation taxes, as is given to the county collector; and when necessary the Recorder shall have power to make deeds in the same manner that other sheriffs do, and the Marshal or other collector, shall receive for his fees, such sum as the town council may direct, not exceeding six per centum on all moneys so by him collected, to be paid by the Treasurer on the order of the Recorder.

SEC. 13. The President of said town, shall be a conservator of the peace within the limits of said corporation, and shall have and exercise all the ordinary powers of justice of the peace, within the limits of the said corporation, in all matters civil or criminal, arising under the laws of this Territory, he shall give bond and security as required of justices of the peace, except that the said bond shall be taken in the name of the "Town of Mendota;" and appeals may be taken from his judgments in all civil cases and in all penal cases arising under the laws and ordinances of said town to the district court of the county of Dakota, in the same manner and within the same time as appeals are, or may be taken and perfected in ordinary cases before justices of the peace. Said President shall keep a docket, and a fair and true record of his proceedings, judgements and executions in all cases which may come before him, and shall be entitled to the same fees as are allowed to justices of the peace for similar services.

SEC. 14. The Marshal shall be principal ministerial officer of said town, and shall have the same powers therein, as constables have by law in their respective counties, and his jurisdiction in criminal cases, shall be co-extensive with the county; he shall execute all processes issued by the President, and receive the same fees that constables are allowed in similar cases for like services.

SEC. 15. Said corporation shall be allowed the use of the jail of the county for the imprisonment of such persons as may be liable to imprisonment under the by-laws and ordinances of said corporation, and such persons shall be under the charge of the sheriff of said county as in other cases.

SEC. 16. That the President, Recorder, Trustees, or other officers of said corporation, shall, on demand, deliver to their successors in office, all such books and other property, as appertain in any wise to said corporation.

SEC. 17. This act to take effect from and after its passage.

CHAPTER VII.—AN ACT to incorporate the St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance Company.

March 5, 1853.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Minnesota, That from the time this act shall take effect, William G. LeDuc, John Farrington, Alexander Wilkin, John R. Irvine, Charles W. Borup, W. L. Ames, A. L. Larpenteur, Levi Sloan, H. M. Rice, W. P. Murray, C. D. Fillmore, and all other persons who may hereafter associate with them in the manner herein prescribed, shall be a body politic and corporate, by the name of the "ST. PAUL MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY," and may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended, in any Court of Record, or other place whatever.

Corporators.

Name.

SEC. 2. The Corporation hereby created may become a party to suits at law, may make by-laws not inconsistent with any existing law, for the regulation of its affairs, have, and use, a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure, and in addition to these general powers, shall have authority by instrument under seal or otherwise:

Powers.

1st. To make insurance on all descriptions of property against loss or damage by fire:

2d. To make insurance on all descriptions of boats and vessels, the cargoes and freights thereof, and on bottomry and respondentia interests, against the perils of marine and inland navigation, and to cause all policies to be paid for at the time of delivery, either by note or in cash.

SEC. 3. All the corporate powers of the said company shall be exercised by a Board of Directors, consisting of ten persons, (all of whom shall be citizens of this Territory,) and such officers, clerks, and agents as the said Board may appoint. The Directors shall hold their office for two years, and until others are elected. They shall elect from their own body a President, and Vice-President, who shall each respectively hold office during the aforesaid term of two years, and until others are elected; but nothing herein shall be so construed as to prevent a Director or other officer whose term has expired, or is about to expire, from being again eligible. Seven members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The persons named in the first section of this act, shall constitute the first Board of Directors.

In whom vested.
