- SECTION 1. Removal of State Bank from Austin to Rochester.
 2. Bank may lawfully transact business at Rochester thereafter.
 3. Notes for redemption to be presented at Rochester.
 4. May continue to use same plates, notes, &c., as before.
 5. When Act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

SECTION 1. It shall be lawful for the State Bank of Minnesota, now located and doing business at Austin, in Mower county, and it is hereby authorized to remove its location, office and fixtures, to Rochester, Olmsted county, Minnesota, at any time hereafter, by filing in the office of the Register of Deeds of the said county of Olmsted, and of the Auditor of State, a certificate, duly signed and acknowledged by the stock-holders of said Bank, or a majority thereof, before a duly authorized Notary Public, that such location, office and fixtures are so removed.

SEC. 2. After the filing of such certificate according to the provisions of Section one (1) of this Act, the said Bank may lawfully do business at Rochester, instead of Austin, and shall be entitled to all the privileges and subject to all the liabilities of any Bank now organized under the General Banking law of the State of Minnesota.

SEC. 3. After such removal of said State Bank of Minnesota to Rochester, as provided in this Act, it shall be lawful to present its circulating notes for redemption, at Rochester instead of Austin, and said presentation at Rochester shall subject the Bank to the same liabilities, if said notes are not redeemed upon presentation, as said Bank is now subject to upon the presentation of said notes at Austin; but it shall not be lawful for any person to present such circulating notes at Austin, after the removal of said Bank to Rochester, as authorized by this Act.

SEC. 4. That the plate, impressions and circulating notes now in use by said Bank, may be used after the removal of said Bank to Rochester, with the same force and effect as though the location of said Bank remained at Austin, and all taxation of said Bank after such removal shall be in Rochester, and not in Austin.

SEC. 5 This Act shall take effect immediately.
