Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

SECTION 1. The supervisors of the town of Faribault, in the county of Rice, shall have full power and authority to enact, publish, enforce, alter, modify, amend and repeal all such ordinances, rules and by-laws, as they shall deem expedient, for the purposes following, to-wit :

First—To compel the owner or occupant of any grocery, cellar, tallow-chandler shop, soap factory, tannery, hog-yard or hog-pen, stable, barn, privy, sewer, hide-yard and slaughter-house, market, or other unwholesome or nauseous house or place, to cleanse, remove, or abate the same from time to time, as may be deemed necessary for the health, comfort and convenience of the inhabitants of said town.

Second.—To direct the location and management of slaughter-houses and markets in said town, and to regulate the sale, storage, conveying and keeping of gunpowder and other combustible materials.

Third.—To prevent the incumbrance of streets, sidewalks, lanes or alleys, with carriages, carts, wagons, boxes, barrels, sleighs, firewood, lumber, or any other material or substance whatever.

Fourth.—To restrain the running at large of cattle, swine, sheep, horses, mules and poultry, and to authorize the impounding, distraining and sale of the same.

Fifth.—To prohibit the running at large of dogs, and to authorize the destruction of the same.

Sixth.—To prevent any person from bringing, depositing, or having, within the district hereinafter described, any putrid carcass or other unwholesome substance, and to require the removal of the same by any person who shall have the same upon his premises, or by the person who shall have put the same thereon, or from any street, lane, public square or alley, and, on default, to authorize the removal thereof, at the expense of such person so required to remove the same.

Seventh.—To make and establish public pounds, and regulations touching the same.

Eighth.—To regulate the burial of the dead, and to make such rules and regulations as they shall deem proper, to prevent the introduction or spread of contagious diseases.

Power of board of supervisors

Ninth.—To prevent all persons from doing any damage to the sidewalks.

Tenth.—To prevent open or notorious drunkenness and brawling, and obscenity in the streets or public places, and to provide for the arrest and punishment of all persons who may be guilty of the same.

Eleventh.—To prevent the dangerous construction and condition of chimneys, fire-places, hearths, stoves, stovepipes, ovens, boilers, boiler-stacks and apparatus used in or about any building, and to cause the same to be placed in a safe and secure condition, when considered dangerous; to prevent the deposit of ashes in unsafe places, and the throwing of ashes in the streets and highways; to regulate and prevent the carrying on of manufactories dangerous in causing and promoting fires; to regulate and prevent the use of fireworks and firearms, and generally to establish such regulations for the prevention and extinguishment of fires as they may deem expedient.

Twelfth.—To provide for the construction and maintenance of suitable sidewalks and street crossings on both sides of Main street, from First street to Fourth street, and for suitable street crossings across said Main street, within the same limits, said sidewalks to be constructed and maintained by or at the expense of the owners of the lots or parts of lots respectively, opposite and adjoining which any sidewalk may be ordered.

Thirteenth.—To cause to be established, under the direction of a surveyor, the grade of Main street, from First street to Fourth street, and cause accurate profiles thereof to be made by such surveyor, and certified by him, one of which shall be filed with the register of Deeds, to be recorded as town plats are recorded.

Fourteenth.—To prevent and punish riots, noise and disturbance of meetings and assemblies, and generally to promote and preserve good order and the public peace.

SEC. 2. Said board of supervisors shall have full power and authority to declare and impose fines, penalties and punishments, and to enforce the same against any person or persons who may violate any of the provisions of any ordinance, rule, or by-law enacted by them, and all such ordinances, rules and by-laws are hereby declared to have the force of law; Provided, That they be not repugnant to the constitution and laws of the United States, or of this State. . Fines, penalties and punishments may extend—a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding thirty days in the county jail, or both, with power to order the offender to be fed on bread and water during the whole or a part of said term of imprisonment, at the discretion of the justice. And offenders may be required to give security for their good behavior, and to keep the peace for a period not exceeding six months, and in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars.

To impose fines,
etc., for violation of ordinances

SEC. 3. The powers herein granted shall be exercised by said board of supervisors only in reference to the district described as follows :

Section number thirty-one, and the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter, and the north half of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section number thirty-two, and so much of the southwest quarter of section number thirty, as lies west of Straight River, and the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section number thirty, all in township number one hundred and ten, north of range number twenty west, according to United States survey, and all situate in the county of Rice and State of Minnesota. Limits of said town

SEC. 4. All ordinances, rules and by-laws shall be enacted by an affirmative vote of a majority of said board of supervisors, and shall be signed by the chairman, and published once in a newspaper published in said town, or posted conspicuously in three public places in said town, for ten days before the same shall be in force, and shall be recorded by the town clerk in a book to be provided for that purpose. But before any of the said ordinances, rules and by-laws shall be recorded, the posting of the same, or the publication thereof as aforesaid, shall be proved by the affidavit of the foreman or publisher of such newspaper, or the certificate of said clerk (whose duty it shall be to post the same,) of said posting, and the said affidavit or certificate, shall be recorded therewith, and at all times shall be deemed and taken as sufficient evidence of the time, manner and place of such publication and posting. Ordinance, rules and by-laws, how enacted

SEC. 5. All prosecutions for any violation of any of the ordinances, rules or by-laws enacted under the provisions of this act, shall be brought in the name of the town of Faribault and shall be commenced by warrant upon complaint being made as required by law in criminal cases before justices of the peace, and the same proceedings shall be had therein, when not otherwise herein directed, as are required to be had by the laws of this State in criminal actions before justices of the peace; Provided, That no appeal shall be allowed in cases where the fine or penalty imposed is less than twenty dollars. The justices of the peace of the town of Faribault, shall have and possess exclusive original jurisdiction of all cases arising under this act. Prosecutions to be brought in name of said town

SEC. 6. All fines and penalties imposed under or by virtue of the provisions of this act, shall belong to the said town of Faribault, and shall constitute a Disposition of fines when collected fund to pay the expenses incurred under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 7. In all cases of the imposition of any fine or penalty, or the rendering of judgment by any justice, for the violation of any ordinance, rule or by-law enacted under the provisions of this act, the offender shall forthwith be committed to the common jail of Rice county, and be there imprisoned for a term not exceeding thirty days, in the discretion of the justice, unless the fine or penalty, or judgment with costs (if any are imposed,) be sooner paid or satisfied. And in all cases where the punishment of such offender shall be by imprisonment, such imprisonment shall be in the said common jail of Rice county, and from and after the arrest of any person or persons for any violation as aforesaid, until the time of the trial or hearing, the person or persons so arrested may be imprisoned in said jail, unless admitted to bail. The sheriff of Rice county and jailors of said jail, and their, and each of their deputies, are required to receive such persons into custody, and confine them safely in said jail until they may be discharged in due course of law. The town of Faribault shall be liable to pay for the support and keeping of such prisoners the same charges and allowance as are allowed for the support and keeping of prisoners committed under the authority of the State. And said town shall be reimbursed out of the funds provided for paying the expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this act.

jail

SEC. 8. No person shall be an incompetent judge, justice or juror by reason of his being an inhabitant of said town of Faribault, in any proceeding or action in which said town shall be a party in interest.

Qualifications of judge, justice, etc.

SEC. 9. Said board of supervisors shall, within thirty days after the annual town meeting, appoint a town marshal, who shall hold his office for the term of one year, and until his successor is appointed and qualified, unless sooner removed, as he may be by said board. All vacancies in said office of town marshal shall be filled by the board of supervisors.
