

SEC. 3. It shall be and is hereby made the duty of the supervisors and constables of the town having knowledge of the violation of any of the provisions of this act, to make complaint thereof to any justice of the peace of the proper county, and any other person having such knowledge, may make complaint before such justice, and the said justice shall issue his warrant for the arrest of the offender, and proceed to hear and determine the matter in issue in the same manner as provided in other cases, and that each and every person convicted under any of the provisions of this act, shall stand committed to the common jail of the county wherein the offense was committed, until such fine be paid.

Duty of Supervisors and Constables.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 13, 1865.

CHAPTER XXX.

An Act to amend an Act entitled "An Act to provide for the opening, establishing, changing and vacating of county roads," approved March first, eighteen hundred and sixty-two.

March 5, 1865.

SECTION 1. County Commissioners to have general supervision of county roads—power of Commissioners.

2. When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

SECTION 1. That section nine of said act approved March first, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, be amended so as to read as follows :

County Commissioners to have general supervision of roads—power of Commissioners.

Section 9. The county commissioners shall have a general supervision of county roads, and they shall have power to appropriate such sums of money from the county treasury as they may think advisable for opening and working such roads, not exceeding, in any one year the sum or ratio of one thousand dollars to each five hundred thousand dollars of assessed valuation of real estate in such county. Provided, That additional sums may be appropriated but shall not be expended except upon a ratification thereof by a vote of the people, to assist in building bridges and in opening and repairing county roads; to be expended under their direction. Provided further, That the towns through which any county road may pass, shall keep such road in repair, the same as other roads in their towns.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved March 2, 1865.

CHAPTER XXXI.

An Act to prevent the running at large of horses diseased with glanders, or driving the same on public highways and stabling the same without apprising hotel keepers thereof.

February 26, 1865.

- SECTION 1. Penalty for permitting horses with glanders running at large—disposition of fine so collected.
2. Penalty for driving knowingly any such diseased animal on the highways and stopping at any hotel or tavern—when hotel or tavern keepers may be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.
3. When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

SECTION 1. Any person being the owner of a horse,