

CHAPTER XXVIII.

An Act to amend section one of chapter seventy-four of the Session Laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-four, of an act entitled "An act to authorize commissioners to amend the description of the town plat of Florence." March 1, 1866.

SECTION 1. Amends section one, chapter seventy-four of the Session Laws of 1864, in regard to the plat of the town of Florence, in the county of Goodhue.

2. When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section one of chapter seventy-four of the session laws of 1864 of an act entitled "an act to authorize commissioners to amend the description of the town plat of Florence," approved March 1, 1864, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Designates commissioners to amend.

That Calvin Potter, James Sutherland and Joseph D. Spinney, or any two of them, are hereby authorized to locate the town plat of Florence, in the county of Goodhue, and to make true description thereof, specifying the legal subdivision of the quarter section, township and range on which said town plat is surveyed and platted. Said description thus made shall be certified upon the oath or affirmation of said commissioners and placed on file in the office of register of deeds in said Goodhue county, Minnesota, and such description so made and filed, shall be attached to the original plat. All deeds heretofore given or conveyances made, or liens and rights acquired, shall be as valid as though the description of said town plat had been originally so made.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved March 1, 1866.
