CHAPTER CXIV.

March 9, 1867

An Act relating to the place of holding county offices in newly organized counties.

SECTION 1.—Newly organized counties, where to hold their offices—County commissioners to provide requisite offices within three years.

§.—When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Where offices held

SECTION 1. That all counties recently organized, or that may hereafter be organized, the county officers may respectively hold their offices at their respective places of abode, until the board of county commissioners of such counties shall have provided offices at the county seat for the accommodation of such officers as are by law required to keep their offices at the county seat. But it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners of such counties, to provide the requisite offices within three years from their organization, at the county seat of the county.

Provided, That this act shall not apply to Douglas county.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 9, 1867.
