

CHAPTER XC.

March 1, 1887

An Act to amend section thirty-two of chapter first of the General Statutes, relating to the duties of county auditors.

SECTION 1.—Amendment of section 89 of chapter first of general statutes—Defines the duties of county auditors with reference to election returns.

2.—When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Amendment

SECTION 1. Section thirty-two of chapter first of the general statutes of Minnesota be amended so as to read as follows: When two or more counties are comprised as one senatorial district, the auditor of the senior county, or of the county wherein it is provided the returns are to be made, shall on the twenty-fifth day after the election, with the county auditors of such other counties of the district as choose to attend at his office, call to his assistance two justices of the peace and a probate judge (provided such judge resides at the county seat where the returns are made) and then and there open the returns of the votes given in the several counties or portion of counties composing such senatorial district; and said auditor shall immediately make out certificates of election for the persons having the highest number of votes in such senatorial district for the members of the legislature; which certificate shall be delivered to the person entitled thereto; Provided, That the returns and abstract of votes for members of the house of representatives elected separately in each county of the sixteenth senatorial district, shall be made to and canvassed by the auditor of each county respectively, and each auditor shall immediately make out a certificate of election for the person having the highest number of votes in the proper county, which certificate shall be delivered to the person entitled thereto, on his application to the auditor, as aforesaid: Provided also, That in the third senatorial district the returns of the votes for representative in Stearns county shall be made to and canvassed by the county auditor of said county, and the returns of the vote for representative in the balance of the territory in said district, shall be made to and canvassed by the county auditor of Morrison county.

SEC. 2. This act shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage.

Approved March 1, 1867.

CHAPTER XCI.

An Act to repeal section forty-five, chapter eleven, General Statutes, relating to duties of county auditors. March 7, 1867.

SECTION 1.—Amends chapter 11 of general statutes in reference to county auditors.

2.—When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section forty-five of chapter eleven of the general statutes be and the same is hereby repealed. Repealed

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 7, 1867.