

hands of the families and scholars in the state, of the same class as the one adopted, allowing therefor the true value of the same according as the same has or has not been used, the said value to be determined under proper regulations to be adopted by the board and made a part of such contract with said publishers.

SEC. 4. Said board of commissioners shall hold their sessions at St. Paul, in the office of the superintendent of public instruction. The members of said board shall receive no compensation for their services, except that the traveling expenses of the principal of the university of Minnesota to and from St. Paul and St. Anthony, shall be paid out of the state treasury.

Where sessions to be held—compensation.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of public instruction to insert in the blank school registers the books which shall be made authoritative and binding upon school officers and teachers agreeably to the provisions of this act.

Cause to be inserted in blank registers names of the books adopted.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval.

When act to take effect.

Approved March 5, 1868.

CHAPTER VI.

An Act Relating to the Apportionment of School Money by County Auditors.

March 6, 1868.

SECTION 1. County Auditors to make report to Superintendent of Public Instruction on the last Wednesdays of March and October—what report to contain.

2. When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of each county auditor in the state, on the last Wednesday of March and on the last Wednesday of October of each year, to make a report to the superintendent of public instruction, showing the whole amount of money by him apportioned on that day among the several school districts in his county; the sources from which said money was received into the county treasury; the aggregate number of scholars in the county, and the number of districts receiving a portion of said school money.

When County Auditor to make report—what report to contain.

When act to take effect.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 6, 1868.

CHAPTER VII.

An Act to Regulate Admission into the Common Schools of the State, and to Repeal Section Seventy-Two, Chapter Thirty-Six (36) of the General Statutes.

March 6, 1868.

SECTION 1. Admission to any school organized under the school law of this State shall be gratuitous to children of all actual residents.

2. Repeal of Section 72, Chapter 36, General Statutes.

3. When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Admission to school gratuitous to children of all actual residents.

SECTION 1. Admission to any school organized under the general school law of the state, or any special school law, sustained in whole or in part by state school funds, shall be gratuitous to the children of all actual residents in the district wherein such school is taught, between the ages of five and twenty-one years, and to all other persons between the same ages, who may be in good faith living in said district, and have not come into the same for the purpose of attending such school.

Repeal of former section.

SEC. 2. Section seventy-two of chapter thirty-six of the general statutes, is hereby repealed.