

CHAPTER LXXVIII.

March 4, 1896. An Act for the preservation of fish in the township of Woodville, County of Waseca and State of Minnesota.

- SECTION 1. Time within which fish may not be caught or destroyed.
2. Penalty for violation of provisions of the preceding Section—penalty for selling or exposing for sale or having in possession during the time specified in said Section.
  3. Justices of the Peace to have jurisdiction of all offenses under this act—all prosecutions under this act to be deemed criminal—disposition of fines collected.
  4. When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Time in which fish may not be caught.

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to catch, spear, take or destroy, or pursue with intent to catch, spear, take or destroy, any fish between the first day of March and the first day of May, in the township of Woodville, county of Waseca.

Penalty for violating this act.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons who shall violate the preceding section, and every person or persons who shall sell or expose for sale, or shall have in his or their possession or custody, with intent to sell, dispose of or transport, or otherwise, any fish, during the time and in the township above specified, shall, upon conviction, suffer a fine of one dollar for every fish so caught, speared, taken or destroyed, or pursued with intent to catch, spear, take or destroy, or so sold or exposed for sale, or so had in possession with intent to sell, dispose of or transport, or otherwise, together with the costs of prosecution.

Justices of the peace to have jurisdiction—all prosecutions to be deemed criminal—disposition of fines.

SEC. 3. Justices of the peace shall have cognizance and jurisdiction of all offences under this act, without regard to the aggregate amount of fines imposed in any one case; and jurisdiction concurrent with the other justices of the peace in and for said county is hereby given of offences under this act to the justice of the peace of the village of Waseca. All prosecutions under this act shall be deemed criminal proceedings, and shall be prosecuted and determined as provided by the law for the prosecution of offences cognizable before justices of the peace; and in all cases of conviction under this act, one-half of all fines and penalties collected shall be paid over by the justice or person collecting the same to the person who shall make complaint in the case, and the complainant shall not be required to give security for costs.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage. When act to take effect.

Approved March 4, 1869.
