Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Boundaries.

SECTION 1. All that part of the township of Sand Creek, in the county of Scott, and state of Minnesota, included within the following described limits or boundaries, to-wit: The southeast quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$), and the northwest quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$); and the northeast quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) (except fifty (50) acres on the north side, belonging to Frederick Callander) of section nineteen (19); and the southwest quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) of section eighteen (18); and the northwest quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) of the southwest quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) of section twenty (20), in township one hundred and fourteen (114), north of range twenty-three (23) west, shall be, and the same is hereby created a village by the name and style of "The Village of Jordan;" and the people who do now or hereafter may reside within the said village, are hereby created a corporation for municipal purposes with perpetual succession, under the name and style of the village of Jordan; and as such corporation shall possess and enjoy all the powers, rights and privileges which can now, or may hereafter be possessed and enjoyed by corporations for municipal purposes, under the constitution and laws of the state.

Corporate powers and officers.

SEC. 2. The male inhabitants of said village having the qualifications of electors of members of the legislature of the state of Minnesota, as hereinafter provided, may elect a president, three trustees, a recorder, a justice of the peace, and a constable, who shall hold their respective offices for one year, or until their successors are elected and qualified. and before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, they shall all [each] take an oath, or affirmation, to support the constitution and laws of the state of Minnesota; also an oath of office. The recorder shall act as treasurer, and shall give such bonds as the village council may require. The treasurer shall keep a true account of all moneys by him received, by virtue of his office, and the manner in which the same are disbursed, in a book provided for that purpose, and exhibit such accounts, together with his vouchers, to the village council, at its annual meeting, for adjustment, and shall deliver all books and property belonging to his office, and the balance of all moneys in his hands as such treasurer and recorder, to his successor in office, on demand, after such successor has qualified according to law.

Duties of treasurer.

SEC. 3. The treasurer shall from time to time, draw from the county treasurer such moneys as have been received by the county treasurer for the use of said village, and on receipt of such moneys he shall deliver proper vouchers therefor.

SEC. 4. The treasurer shall, on the Tuesday preceding the annual election for village officers, make out a statement in writing of the moneys by him received into the village treasury from officers and other sources, and also of all moneys paid out by him as such treasurer, in which statement he shall set forth particularly from whom and on what account such moneys were received by him, with the amount received from each person or officer, and the date of receiving the same, also to whom and for what purpose any moneys have been paid out by him, with the amount and date of each payment; he shall also state therein the amount of moneys remaining in his hands as treasurer; such statement shall be filed by him in his office for the inspection of any person, and shall be carefully preserved, and recorded in a book provided for that purpose.

Further duties
of treasurer.

SEC. 5.—The president, the three trustees, and recorder, shall be the village council of said village, any three of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business, and shall have full power and authority to enact, adopt, modify, enforce, and from time to time amend or repeal all such ordinances, rules and by-laws as they shall deem expedient, for the following purposes, to-wit:

Village council
—how constituted—powers.

First.—To provide for the construction and maintenance of suitable sidewalks and street crossings as they shall deem expedient, at the expense of the owners of the lots or parts of lots respectively opposite and adjoining to such sidewalk or crossings.

Second.—To prevent riots, noise, disturbance of meetings or public assemblies whatever, to punish any person or persons who may be engaged in, or in any way connected with the same, and generally to promote and preserve good order and the public peace.

Third.—To prevent the encumbering of streets, sidewalks, lanes or alleys, with carriages, carts, wagons, boxes, barrels, sleighs, firewood, lumber or any other material or substance whatever.

Fourth.—To restrain the running at large of cattle, swine, sheep, horses, mules and poultry, and to authorize the impounding, distraining and sale of the same.

Fifth.—To prevent any person from bringing, depositing or having within the village, any putrid carcass or other unwholesome substance, and to require the removal of the same by any person who shall have the same upon his premises, or by the person who may have put the same thereon; or from any street, lane, public square or alley, and in default, to authorize the removal thereof, at the expense of such person so required to remove the same.

Village council
—powers.

Sixth.—To prevent open and notorious drunkenness, brawling or obscenity in the streets, alleys or public places, and to provide for the punishment of all persons who may be guilty of the same.

Seventh.—To prevent all persons from doing any damage to the sidewalks.

Eighth.—To direct the location and management of slaughter houses and markets in said village, and to regulate the sale, storage, conveying and keeping of gunpowder and other combustible materials.

Ninth.—To compel the owners, agents or lessees of any hog yard or hog pen, stable, privy, sewer, hide yard, slaughter house, markets, or any other unwholesome or nauseous house, or place, to clean, remove or abate the same from time to time as the village council may deem necessary for the health, comfort and convenience of the inhabitants of said village.

Tenth.—To prevent the dangerous construction and condition of chimneys, fireplaces, hearths, stoves, stove pipes, ovens, boilers, stacks and apparatus used in or about any building, and to cause the same to be placed in a safe condition, at the expense of the owner or owners; to prevent the deposit of ashes in unsafe places, or the throwing of them into the street; to regulate and prevent the use of fireworks and firearms, and to establish such regulations for the prevention and extinguishment of fires as they may deem expedient; also to adopt such regulations as they may deem proper to prevent the introduction or spread of contagious diseases.

Eleventh.—To establish the grades of streets and cause an accurate profile thereof to be made, a copy of which must be filed in the office of the village recorder.

Twelfth.—To license public showmen or exhibitions, billiard tables and bowling alleys.

Thirteenth.—To prevent and punish horse racing, immoderate driving in the streets, and to compel persons to fasten their horses or mules, attached to vehicles while in the streets, and to regulate the places of bathing and swimming in water in the limits of the said village.

Further powers

SEC. 6. Said village council shall have full power and authority to declare and impose fines, penalties and punishments, and to enforce the same against any person or persons who may violate any of the provisions of any ordinance, rule or by-law enacted by them; and all such ordinances, rules and by-laws are hereby declared to have the force of law; provided, they are not repugnant to the constitution and laws of the United States and state of Minnesota. Fines, penalties and punishments may extend as follows, to-wit: fines not to exceed one hundred dollars, nor imprisonment to exceed thirty days in the county or village jail. Offenders may be required to give security for their good behavior, and to keep the peace for a period not exceeding one year, in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars.

SEC. 7.—All ordinances, rules and by-laws shall be enacted by a majority of all the members of the village council, and shall be signed by the president or chairman, attested by the recorder, and published once in a newspaper published in said village, or posted conspicuously in three public places in said village, for ten days, before the same shall be in force, and shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose.

Ordinances.

SEC. 8. All prosecutions for violating any of the ordinances, rules or by-laws, enacted under the provisions of this act, be shall brought in the name of the village of Jordan, and shall be commenced by warrant upon complaint being made as required by law in criminal cases before justices of the peace, and the same proceedings shall be had therein as are required to be had by the laws of this state in criminal or civil actions before justices of the peace; provided, no appeal shall be allowed in any case where the fine or penalty imposed is less than twenty dollars. The justice of the peace of the village shall have and possess exclusive and original jurisdiction of all cases arising under the provisions of this act.

Prosecutions
in name of village.

SEC. 9. All fines and penalties imposed under, or by virtue of the provisions of this act, shall belong to the village of Jordan, and shall constitute a fund to pay the expenses incurred under the provisions of this charter.

alties to be fund for expenses.

SEC. 10. Any five citizens, being freeholders within the corporate limits of said village, and having the qualifications of electors of members of the state legislature, may at any time call a meeting of the electors thereof to elect officers provided for in section two of this act, by posting a notice for ten days prior to the meeting, at the post office and at two more public places within the limits of said village, or by publishing the same for two weeks immediately preceding said election, in a paper published in said village, stating the object of the meeting, and the time and place of holding the same; and the electors present at the time and place may organize such meeting, by choosing, viva voce, two judges of election and one clerk, who shall take an oath or affirmation to faithfully discharge the duties required of them; and said judges and clerk, being duly qualified, shall forthwith open the polls by proclamation, and conduct the election in the manner prescribed by the statutes of Minnesota for the election of township officers; and the judges of election shall give to each person elected, a certificate of his election within five days after said election.

Manner of electing officers.

Judges of election.

SEC. 11. After the first election of officers the village council shall act as judges of election, and the annual meeting for the election of officers shall be held on the first Wednesday of April, in each year, at such place in said village as the council may direct, and the polls shall be open[ed] between the hours of ten and eleven o'clock in the forenoon and close at four o'clock in the afternoon of said day. At the close of the polls the votes shall be counted, and a true statement thereof proclaimed to the voters by some one of the judges of election, and the recorder shall make a true copy thereof in a book kept for that purpose, and within five days thereafter shall notify, in writing, the persons so elected, of their election.

Notice of annual election.

SEC. 12. The village council shall give notice of the time and place of holding the annual meeting for the election of officers by posting a notice of the same fourteen days immediately prior to the day of election at the post office, and at three or more public places in said village, or by publishing it for two weeks immediately prior to said election in a paper published in said village, and may at any time call a special meeting of the electors of the village by posting or publishing a notice as provided in this section for the call of the annual meeting; provided, no subject or question shall be considered or acted upon at any annual or special meeting unless it has been clearly stated in the notice for the call of such meeting.

Pound or lockup—levy of tax.

SEC. 13. The legal voters of said village may at any annual or special meeting, authorize the village council to levy a tax to build a pound, or to build a building or place for the confinement of persons arrested under the provisions of this act; and any such tax shall be levied and collected as prescribed by the statutes of this state for the levying and collecting of township taxes.

Authority to license vendors
of liquors.

SEC. 14. The village council shall have the exclusive right to license persons vending, dealing in, or disposing of spirituous, vinous, malt, or fermented liquors, within the limits of said village, and persons so licensed shall not be required to obtain a license from the board of county commissioners, and shall not be prosecuted for selling, bartering or disposing of spirituous, vinous, malt, or fermented liquors, if having first obtained license therefor agreeably to the provisions of chapter sixteen (16) of the general statutes; provided, that no license shall be granted for less than twenty-five or more than fifty dollars, and that previous to the granting of any such license, a bond shall be executed with the same conditions and the same penal sum as required by the general act, and the council shall have full power to restrain any person from vending liquors, unless duly licensed by the village council of said village.

SEC. 15. The justice of the peace, and constable of said village shall have, and may exercise in addition to the power and authority herein specially granted to such officers, all the power and authority in any case possessed by a justice of the peace or constable elected by the said township of Sand Creek. The village justice and constable shall take the same oath of office, and execute before entering upon the discharge of the[ir] duties as such officers, the same bonds, and file the bonds with the same parties, as justices of the peace and constables elected by said township of Sand Creek, are now, or may hereafter be required to do, and shall receive the same fees for their services as justices of the peace and constables elected by the said township of Sand Creek, are allowed under the statutes of this state, and the constable may at any time, under the direction of the president or a majority of the village council, call to his assistance any number of citizens, sufficient to aid him in the suppression of a riot, or any public disturbance, or to aid him in making arrests.

Justice of peace
and constables
—powers.

SEC. 16. Should a vacancy occur in any of the offices provided for in this act, the village council are hereby authorized to fill the same by appointment.

Vacancies, how filled.

SEC. 17. The village of Jordan shall constitute one or more road districts, and the highway labor and taxes shall belong to the fund, and the trustees shall appoint an overseer of said road districts, and they shall issue a warrant to him containing the whole amount of labor and taxes assessed and levied in said district or districts, which said warrant shall be returned to the village recorder. The laws of the state shall apply to the warning, working, and suing for and collecting highway taxes, and to returning delinquent taxes, and in all other respects except as herein expressly provided. The trustees shall have full power to direct the overseer, when, where, and how to expend such labor and tax, and to remove him, and may direct him to expend the labor in the manner to be directed by them at any point beyond the limits of said village, and the trustees shall perform the duties imposed by law on the supervisors of towns in levying highway taxes, and shall be governed and restricted in the amount so levied by the same laws applicable to supervisors of towns in levying highway taxes and labor.

Taxes for bridges and highways.

SEC. 18. All taxes raised within the limits of said village for building bridges or public highways, or for repairing the same, shall be expended under the direction of the village council. Provided a village council is elected under the provisions of this act.

Board of auditors.

SEC. 19. The village council shall constitute a village board of auditors for the purpose of auditing all accounts payable by said village; and the recorder shall be clerk of said board, and a member thereof.

Duties of board of auditors.

SEC. 20. The said board of auditors shall meet annually on the Tuesday next preceding the annual village election to be held in said village, and at such other times as they shall deem necessary and expedient for the purpose of auditing and settling all charges against the said village; and they shall state on each account the amount allowed by them, but no allowance shall be made for any account which does not specially state each item of the same and the nature thereof.

Further duties
of board of auditors.

SEC. 21. Said board shall draw up a report stating in detail the items of accounts audited and allowed, the nature of each account, and the name of the person to whom such account was allowed, including a statement of the fiscal concerns of the village.

Report to be read at next
election.

SEC. 22. Such report shall be produced and publicly read by the clerk of said board at the next ensuing village election; and the whole or a part of such report may be referred, by the order of the meeting, to a committee of three, whose duty it shall be to examine the report and report thereon to such meeting.

Payment of accounts.

SEC. 23. The amounts of any account audited and allowed by the board of auditors, and the amount of any account voted to be allowed by any meeting of the voters of said village, shall be paid by the village treasurer on the order of said board, signed by the president and countersigned by the clerk of the said board; and all orders issued to any person by such board for any sum of money due from said village, shall be received in payment of village taxes of said village.

Duties of village justice.

SEC. 24. The village justice shall report quarterly to the village council all the proceedings instituted before him in which the village is interested; and shall at the same time account for and pay over to the village treasurer, all fines and penalties collected by him [belonging] to said village; and said justice shall be entitled to receive from the county of Scott, such fees in criminal cases, occurring without the village, as are allowed to other justices for similar purposes.

SEC. 25. The cost and expense of building, grading, paving, or repairing sidewalks shall be, at the option of the village council, chargeable to the lots fronting on said improvement. Whenever the village council shall deem it necessary to construct or repair any sidewalk in said village, they may notify all owners and occupants of any lot or lots, or parcel of land adjoining such sidewalks to construct or repair the same to [at] his or their own proper expense and charge, within a certain time designated, by delivering to the owners or occupants of said lot or lots, or parcels of land, or by publication in a newspaper printed and published in said village, for not less than two weeks, of a notice to said owners or occupants, setting forth what work is to be done, and the character of the same, by such owners or occupants, and the time within which they are required to do the same.

Sidewalks, expense of building, &c.

SEC. 26. If such work is not done and the said sidewalks not built or repaired in the manner and within the same time prescribed, the village council may order the same to be done at the expense of the lots and parcels of land adjoining said sidewalks; and said expenses shall be assessed upon such lots and parcels of land so chargeable by the village council and returned by them; and said assessment so made and returned, if approved by the council, shall become a lien upon said lots and parcels, as in case of town, county and state taxes.

Failure to build sidewalks—proceedings.

SEC. 27. All the work of said village exceeding fifty dollars shall be let by contract to the lowest responsible bidder, and due notice shall be given of the time and place of letting such contract, and every contract so made, shall be commenced within one week of the acceptance of the proposal, unless the village council otherwise determine; provided, that they shall have power to reject all unreasonable bids.

Contracts to be let to lowest bidder.

SEC. 28. No money shall be appropriated to any purpose whatever, except and not exceeding the sum of fifty dollars, unless it is expressly authorized by a vote of the legal voters in said village.

Appropriations to be by vote of citizens.

SEC. 29. All moneys arising from fines, commutations, licenses &c., shall be paid into the village treasury.

Moneys from fines, &c., paid to treasurer.

SEC. 30. The village council shall have power and authority,—

Powers of council.

First—To regulate the place and manner of selling, and to provide for the inspection and weight of hay and coal, and measuring of charcoal, firewood and other fuel, and to appoint suitable persons to inspect, superintend and conduct the same.

Powers of council.

Second—To compel the owners or occupants of buildings or grounds to remove snow, dirt or rubbish from the sidewalks, streets, alleys, opposite thereto; and in their default, by some officer of the village at the expense of such owners or occupants.

Third—To regulate and license public auctions or vendues.

Fourth—To provide by ordinance for a standard of weights and measures, and the appointment of a village scaler; and to provide for the punishment for the use of false weights and measures.

Relating to bonds heretofore issued.

SEC. 31. The said village of Jordan shall be liable for its proportionate share of principal and interest of any bonds or other indebtedness which has been or may be voted or incurred by the township of Sand Creek, for any purpose whatever, prior to the time when this act shall take effect or be enforced.

Relating to
holding office.

SEC. 32. Nothing in this act shall be taken or construed so as to prohibit any inhabitant of said village from holding any town office for the township of Sand Creek, nor to prohibit any inhabitant who has been elected to any town office from serving out his unexpired term of office.

When act takes effect.

SEC. 33. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 26, 1872.
