CHAPTER XLVIII.

An Act enabling the Cities, Towns and Villages, in the counties of Hennepin, Ramsey, Olmsted and Fillmore, to Aid in the construction of Railways in said counties.

February 24,
1872.

- SECTION 1. Authority to aid in the construction of railroads.
2. Proceedings to vote and by levying a railroad tax.
 3. Manner of paying out the moneys received from tax levy.
 4. Proceedings to vote aid by the issue of special bonds.
 5. Proceedings to vote aid by subscription to the capital stock of railroad company.
 6. Provides for a second election in case the first fails to carry.
 7. Tax levy for principal and interest.
 8. Public use and benefit of railroad declared.
 9. Railroad to be completed before bonds delivered.
 10. Voters must have a legal residence of three months.
 11. When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. It shall be lawful for any city, village or town in either of the counties of Hennepin, Ramsey, Olmsted and Fillmore to aid in the construction of any railway, to be constructed into or through said counties, by voting such aid in either of the modes hereinafter provided.

Authority to aid railroad.

Mode of levying tax.

SEC. 2. Whenever a petition shall be presented to the council or other municipal authorities of any incorporated city, or village, or the supervisors of any township in such counties, signed by twenty-five of the resident taxpayers of said city, village or town, asking that the question of aiding in the construction of any railroad, as above provided, and stating the amount desired to be furnished as such aid, be submitted to the voters thereof, it shall be the duty of the council or other municipal authorities of such incorporated city or village, or the supervisors of such town, to immediately give notice of a special election, by publication in some newspaper published in the county, and also by posting copies thereof in five public places in such town, village or city, at least twenty days before said election, which notice shall specify the time and place of holding said election, the railroad proposed to be aided, the amount of tax proposed to be raised, and the town or towns, incorporated city or cities, village or villages in which such tax shall be expended, at which election to be held in accordance with said notice, the question of raising the amount so specified, by taxation in said town, city or village, shall be submitted to the legal voters of said town, city or village, to be determined by ballot, those in favor of the proposition having written or printed on their ballots the words, "Railroad Tax, Yes," and those opposing the measure having written or printed on their ballots the words, "Railroad Tax, No."

The election shall be conducted and the ballots canvassed as nearly as may be in accordance with the modes of conducting town and city elections in ordinary cases. And if a majority of the votes polled at any such election shall be in favor of the proposed tax, the supervisors of the town, the council or other municipal authorities of the city or village, as the case may be, shall forthwith certify to the auditor of the county, the fact and the amount of tax thus voted by such town, city or village, and the board of county commissioners of the county, shall, at the time of levying the ordinary annual taxes next following said special election, levy all taxes voted under the provisions of this act, and cause the same to be placed on the grand duplicate tax lists of the proper cities, towns or villages, and said taxes shall be collected in the same manner and by the same officers as county and state taxes, and be subject to the same penalties for the non-payment thereof. But the aggregate amount of the tax levied under the provisions of this act in any city, village or town, shall in no case exceed five per cent of the assessed value of the taxable property of said town, city or village, as it appears on the assessment roll whereon the tax is levied.

SEC. 3. All taxes collected under the provisions aforesaid, shall be paid out by the county treasurer upon the orders of the president or managing director of the railroad company whose road such tax has been voted to aid, whenever the said railroad has been completed, with the cars running thereon in the town, city or village voting such aid in accordance with the terms of the notice provided for in section two of this act, which fact shall be evidenced by the affidavit of the engineer in charge of the construction of said road, and a certificate of the chairman of the board of supervisors, or the mayor or other presiding officer of the council, or chief executive officer of the city or village voting the tax for which said orders are drawn, to the effect that the provisions of this act have been so complied with as to entitle said company to the amount specified in such orders. Provided, however, that should the taxes not be drawn from the county treasury in accordance with the provisions of this act, by the railroad company in whose favor the same may have been voted, within two years after the date of the collection thereof, then the right of said railroad company to said funds shall be deemed forfeited, and they shall be repaid by the county treasurer to the persons from whom they were collected.

Mode of paying out moneys.

SEC. 4. Whenever, instead of the petition provided for in the foregoing second section of this act, stating the amount desired to be raised by taxation, as therein contemplated, there shall be presented to the same persons or bodies and be signed by the same number of resident taxpayers as therein provided, a petition, asking that the question of aiding in the construction of such railroad as above provided, and stating the amount of special bonds of such town, city or village, desired to be furnished as such aid, be submitted to the voters thereof, it shall be the duty of the council or other municipal authorities of such incorporated city or village, or the supervisors of such town, to immediately give notice of a special election by publication and notice as specified in section two of this act, which notice shall specify the time and place of holding said election, the railroad proposed to be aided, the amount of bonds proposed to be issued, at which election the question of issuing to said railroad company the proposed amount of bonds of said town, city or village, shall be submitted to the legal voters of said town, village or city, to be determined by ballot, those in favor of the proposition having written or printed on their ballots the words, "Railroad Bonds, Yes," and those opposing the measure having written or printed on their ballots the words, "Railroad Bonds, No." The election shall be conducted and the votes canvassed in the same manner as above provided in case of the submission of the question of taxation. And if a majority of the votes polled at any such election shall be in favor of the issue of said bonds, the supervisors of the town, or the council or other municipal authorities of the incorporated city or village as the case may be, shall cause to be issued in the name of such town, city or village, and signed by the supervisors, mayor or other municipal authorities, as the case may be, attested by the signature of the town clerk, city recorder or village clerk, and the corporate seal, if there be one, running to said railroad company or bearer, the special bonds of said city, village or town, to the aggregate amount so voted, which shall be in such sums not less than one hundred dollars, nor exceeding one thousand dollars, each having not exceeding twenty years to run and drawing interest not exceeding seven per cent. per annum, the amount of each, rate of interest, and time and place and manner of payment, within the limitations and restrictions aforesaid, to be fixed by the respective supervisors, and councils, or other municipal authorities issuing them or causing them to be issued; and such bonds may have interest coupons attached, and may be substantially in the following form, or similar thereto, viz:

No. — State of Minnesota, $1,000
Town or City of —————.

Know all men by these presents: That the city or town of —, in — county, state of Minnesota, is indebted to the — railroad company of the state of Minnesota, or bearer, in the sum of one thousand dollars, which they promise to pay to the bearer hereof on the 1st day of —, in the city of New York, with interest thereon from the 1st day of —, at the rate of — per centum per annum, payable semi-annually at the —, in the city of New York, on the first day of — in each year, on the presentation and surrender of the annexed coupons as they severally become due. This bond is one of a series of a like tenor and date, issued by the town of —, or city of —, to the amount of —, to aid in the construction of a railroad from —.

In witness whereof, the town of —, or city of —, has caused this bond to be sealed, signed and delivered in their corporate name, by order of the city council of said city or supervisors of said town, pursuant to their resolutions in this respect, passed ———.

The city of ——— or town of ———. Attest: By ———, mayor or supervisors. ———, city recorder or town clerk.

SEC. 5. Whenever, instead of the petitions provided for in the second and fourth sections of this act, there shall be presented to the same persons or bodies, and be signed by the same number of resident tax-payers, as therein provided, a petition asking that the question of aiding in the construction of such railroad as above provided, by subscription to the capital stock of said railroad company and the issuing of the bonds of such township, village, or city in payment thereof, and stating the amount of such stock proposed to be so subscribed for and the amount of such bonds proposed to be issued to pay therefor, be submitted to the voters of such town, village, or city, it shall be the duty of the supervisors of such town, or of the council or other municipal authorities of such village or city, to immediately give notice of a special election, by publication and notice as aforesaid, which notice shall specify the time and place of holding such election, the railroad proposed to be aided, the amount of stock of such railroad company proposed to be subscribed for by such town, village, or city, and the amount of bonds proposed to be issued to pay for such stock; at which election the question of subscribing for the stock of said railroad company and of the issuing to said railroad company in payment therefor, the proposed amount of the bonds of said town city, or village shall be submitted to the legal voters of said town, village or city, to be determined by ballot, those in favor of the proposition to have written or printed on their ballots, the words, "Subscription for railroad stock, Yes;" and those opposed to it having written or printed on their ballots, the words, "Subscription for railroad stock, No."

Subscription to capital stock.

The election shall be conducted and votes canvassed in the same manner as above provided in the case of submission of the question of taxation, and if a majority of the votes polled at any such election shall be in favor of subscription to the stock of such railroad company, it shall be the duty of the supervisors of such townships, or the council or other municipal authorities of such village or city, to subscribe for in the name of such town, village or city, an amount of such capital stock of such railroad company equal to the amount so voted and for the purpose of paying therefor to issue or cause to be issued in the name of such town, village or city an amount of the special bonds of such township, village or city, equal in the aggregate to the amount of the capital stock of said railroad company so subscribed for as aforesaid, which said bonds shall be executed in the same manner and of the same tenor and terms as provided for in section four of this act.

The supervisors of such town, or the council or other municipal authorities of such village or city, shall have power and authority to sell and dispose of such bonds when issued and apply the proceeds in payment of the stock of said railroad company subscribed for as aforesaid, or may deliver the bonds themselves to such company in payment thereof; Provided, however, That the said bonds shall in no case be sold, negotiated or in any manner disposed of for a less price than their par value. And provided, further, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize any city, town or village to issue bonds to an amount exceeding in the aggregate ten per cent. of the assessed valuation of the property of such town or village as shall appear from the assessment of 1871. Provided, That the town of Oronoco, in the county of Olmsted, which may issue bonds in any sum not exceeding thirty thousand dollars. The townships, cities or villages which shall subscribe and pay for any railroad stock as aforesaid, are hereby authorized to receive, hold, assign, or otherwise dispose of any such stock as fully as a natural person. Provided, however, That the supervisors of any town, or the council or other municipal authorities of any village or city shall not have power to sell, assign or dispose of any such stock, unless first authorized to do so by a vote of the legal voters of such town, village or city.

Second election authorized.

SEC. 6. In case of submission of either of the questions of taxation or issuing of bonds, or subscriptions of stock, as aforesaid, and the same has been voted down in any town, city or village, the same question, upon a new petition may again be submitted not less than one month subsequent to the first election in the same manner and with the same effect as at the previous special election, but the decision of the second submission shall be final and conclusive.

Levy for payment.

SEC. 7. Every town and incorporated city or village issuing or delivering its bonds as aforesaid, shall provide by taxation and otherwise for the punctual payments thereof, principal and interest, as they become due.

Public use and benefit.

SEC. 8. The public use and benefit of the above mentioned railroad or railroads is hereby declared.

When bonds to be delivered.

SEC. 9. No bonds provided for in this act shall be delivered to said railway company until its line of railroad shall have been completed, with the cars running thereon, in the town, city or village voting such aid, which fact shall be evidenced in the same manner as is provided for in section three of this act.

SEC. 10. No person shall be allowed to vote at any election provided for in this act unless he shall have been an actual resident of the town, city or village where he offers to vote for three months next preceding such election, and shall also be a legal voter in such town, city or village.

Qualification of voters.

SEC. 11. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

When act to take effect.

CHAPTER XLIX.

An Act to Authorize the City Council of the City of Winona to issue Bonds.

February 24,
1872.

- SECTION 1. City council authorized to issue bonds to pay floating indebtedness.
2. City council to levy tax to pay principal and interest.
 3. When act to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. The city council of the city of Winona is hereby authorized to issue the bonds of the city of Winona to the amount of twenty thousand dollars, and use and negotiate the same for the purpose of raising money to pay the floating indebtedness of said city, and any deficiency in the expenses of the city government for the current year. Such bonds and the interest thereon shall be payable at such times and places as the said city council may determine. But said bonds shall not be made payable more than three years from the date thereof. Nor shall they draw a greater rate of interest than ten per cent. per annum payable semi-annually nor shall they be sold or negotiated by the city council for a less price than their par value.

Council may issue bonds.

SEC. 2. Said bonds shall be signed by the mayor of said city and attested by the recorder thereof, and shall refer on
