CHAPTER CVIII.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF BRIDGES
OVER THE MINNESOTA RIVER.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Organized companies may erect free or toll bridges—to be provided with a draw.

SECTION 1. Any company duly organized for the purpose, or any county or counties, town or towns, village or villages, interested therein, may erect a free or toll bridge over the Minnesota river, at any suitable point to be selected, but all such bridges shall be provided with a suitable draw, with an opening of not less than eighty feet, which, on seasonable signal or notice, shall be opened to allow the passage of boats navigating said river.

Plan to be submitted to governor.

SEC. 2. Before any such bridge is erected, the location and plan thereof shall be submitted to the governor, who shall examine the same, and if he deems the plan and location proper, he shall approve the same.

Corporations
subject to certain provisions.

SEC. 3. Corporations for the purpose of erecting and maintaining free or toll bridges over any lake or stream of water in the state, may be formed, and continue to be a corporation under and subject to the provisions of chapter seventeen, Bissell's statutes, being chapter thirty-four, statutes of eight hundred and sixty-six, and acts amendatory thereto.
