

as may be necessary, with coupons attached, to build a city hall in said borough, and for no other purpose whatever.

SEC. 2. Said bonds shall be in such sums as said borough council shall by resolution determine, and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding ten (10) per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and the principal of said bonds shall be payable at such time or times, not more than ten (10) years after the date thereof, as said council shall determine.

SEC. 3. The bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be signed by the mayor of said borough, and be attested by the clerk thereof, and sealed with the seal of said borough, and the said clerk shall keep a true record of all the bonds issued under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 4. The proper authorities of said borough shall annually include in a general tax an amount sufficient to pay all the interest on such of said bonds as may be issued, and when the principal or any part thereof is about to become due, a sufficient amount to pay such principal.

SEC. 5. The said council shall not have authority to negotiate said bonds for less than their par value.

SEC. 6. The proposition to issue said bonds shall be submitted to a vote of the electors of the said borough at any charter election, due notice being given by publication, being given by said council in a weekly newspaper published in said borough for at least three weeks successively before the day of such election. The electors shall vote by ballot, and such ballots shall have printed or written or partly printed and partly written thereon the words, "Issue of Bonds for building City Hall—Yes," or "Issue of Bonds for building City Hall—No." Said votes shall be canvassed in the same manner as is provided for canvass of votes for officers of said borough, and if a majority of those voting upon such proposition shall vote in favor of such proposition, then the said borough council may issue said bonds and not otherwise.

SEC. 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 2, 1878.
