CHAPTER XIII.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE VILLAGE OF DUNDAS.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. All that part of the county of Rice, state of Minnesota, within the limits and boundaries hereinafter described, shall be a village by the name of Dundas, and the people now inhabiting and those who shall hereafter inhabit within the district of country herein described, shall be a municipal corporation by the name of the village of Dundas, who shall have the general powers possessed by municipal corporations at common law, and in addition thereto shall possess the powers hereinafter granted, and the authorities thereof shall have perpetual succession, shall be capable of contracting and being contracted with, of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded, in all courts of laws and equity, and shall have a common seal, and may change and alter the same at pleasure; and may take, hold and purchase, lease and convey such real and personal and mixed estate as the purposes of the corporation may require, within or without the limits of said village.

SEC. 2. The territory included in the following limits and boundaries shall constitute the village of Dundas, viz: Northwest quarter section ten, in township one hundred and eleven, range twenty; all of southeast quarter section ten, north half of the southwest quarter of section eleven, west half of the south half of the southwest quarter of section eleven. All of west half of the northwest quarter of section fourteen, all of northeast quarter of section fifteen, and east half of the northwest quarter section fifteen.

SEC. 3. The elective officers of said village shall be five trustees and one justice of the peace who shall be styled village justice. The trustees shall hold their respective offices for the term of one year and the village justice for the term of two years and until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

SEC. 4. The term of all officers shall commence as soon as they are elected and qualified. All officers shall, before entering upon the discharge of the duties of their respective offices, each take and subscribe an oath to faithfully and honestly discharge the duties of their office, which said oath of office shall be filed with the recorder of said village.

CHAPTER II.

SECTION 1. There shall be a council composed of the five trustees who shall elect one of their number chairman, which shall be styled the village council of the village of Dundas.

SEC. 2. The village council shall judge of the qualifications, elections and returns of its own members, and shall determine all contested elections, and in such cases shall have power to send for persons and papers.

SEC. 3. A majority of the village council shall constitute a quorum to do business.

SEC. 4. The village council shall have power to determine the rule of its proceedings, punish its members for disorderly conduct and with the concurrence of two-thirds of the members elected, expel a member after due notice given, and an opportunity extended to the accused to be heard by counsel or otherwise.

SEC. 5. The village council shall keep a journal of its proceedings and ayes and nays, when demanded by any member present, shall be entered on the journal, and the style of all ordinances shall be: The village council of the village of Dundas do ordain.

SEC. 6. The village council shall at its first regular meeting after the annual election, appoint a recorder, a treasurer and a village marshal, who shall hold their respective offices for one year and until their successors are appointed and qualified.

SEC. 7. The first election of officers in said village shall be held on the third Tuesday in March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and on the annual town election thereafter, at which time the electors of said village qualified to vote at town elections, may elect by ballot and by plurality of votes, five trustees and one village justice. The village council shall give ten days' notice of the time and place of holding said election by posting up written notices thereof in three public places in the village or by causing such notice to be published in one or more newspapers printed and published in said village.

The elections shall be held and conducted in the same manner as town elections, and the laws of this state applicable to elections generally shall apply as far as consistency will admit, and the oath of a voter shall be the same as at town meetings, and false swearing shall be perjury. The village council shall meet the first Monday after their election.

SEC. 8. That for the purpose of the first election under this act E. G. Ault, C. W. Brown and Robert R. Hutchinson shall be inspectors of election, and also the board of canvassers for such election, and shall perform all the duties and possess all the powers of inspectors of election and board of canvassers prescribed by this act; they shall appoint the place of holding the polls of such election, and post or publish notice thereof previous to the same; and all subsequent elections shall be conducted by the village council, who shall be inspectors of such election.

SEC. 9. Any vacancy occurring in the village council shall be filled by the remaining members of the council and the village justice. Any vacancy occurring in any other office shall be filled by the village council. Any person appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold his office and discharge the duties thereof for the unexpired term, and with the same rights and subject to the same liabilities as the person whose office he may have been appointed to fill.

SEC. 10. No officer shall receive compensation except the marshal, and in all such cases compensation shall be fixed by by-law, where the laws of the state do not define such compensation.

SEC. 11. Any person having been an officer of the village who shall not, within six days after requested by his successors in office, deliver all books, papers, property or effects in his hands, pertaining to such office or belonging to the village, shall forfeit to the use of the village fifty dollars, and shall be also liable for all damages caused by such refusal or neglect, and such successor may recover possession of such books, papers, property and effects in the manner prescribed by the laws of this state for other officers.

SEC. 12. Any officer removing from the village, or any officer who shall neglect or refuse for ten days, after notice of his election or appointment, to enter upon the discharge of his office, shall be deemed to have vacated his office, and the village council shall proceed to fill the vacancy as prescribed.

CHAPTER III.

SECTION 1. The treasurer, marshal, and such other officers as the village council may direct, shall severally, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, execute to the village of Dundas a bond, with at least two sureties, to be approved by the village council, who shall make affidavit that they are each worth the penalty specified in such bond, over and above all debts and exemptions or liabilities; and said bond shall contain such penal sum and such conditions as the village council may deem proper, and they may from time to time require new or additional bonds, and remove from office any officer refusing or neglecting to give the same.

SEC. 2. Should there be a failure by the people to elect any officers herein required to be elected on the day designated, the village council may order a new election to be held, ten days' notice of the time and place of holding the same to be given as in general election.

SEC. 3. The chairman of trustees shall, when present, preside over the meetings of village council and take care that the laws of the state and the ordinances of the village be strictly enforced and duly observed, and that all other executive officers of the village discharge their respective duties.

The chairman or any two councilmen may call special meetings of the village council. He shall have power to execute all acts that may be required of him by any ordinance in pursuance of the act, and is hereby authorized to call upon every male inhabitant of said village over the age of eighteen years, to aid in enforcing the laws or carrying into effect any law or ordinance. Any person who shall not obey such call shall forfeit to said village a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars and not less than five dollars.

SEC. 4. The recorder shall keep the corporate seal, and all the papers and records of the village, and keep a record of all the proceedings of the village council; he shall draw and countersign all orders on the treasurer in pursuance of any order or resolution of the village council, and keep a full and accurate account thereof in a book provided for that purpose and make a full and fair record of all by-laws, rules or ordinances made or passed by such village council. The recorder shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations, and copies of all papers filed in his office and transcripts from the records of the village council certified to by him under the corporate seal shall be evidence in all courts in like manner as if the original were produced.

He shall report annually on the first day of June to the council, an estimate of the expenses of the village for the current year, and the revenues necessary to be raised therefor, and the fiscal year of the village shall commence on the first day of July. He shall countersign all contracts made in behalf of the village and all certificates of work done by order of the village council. He shall examine the report, books, papers, vouchers and accounts of the treasurer, and from time to time shall perform such other duties as the village council may direct.

He shall not be directly or indirectly interested in any job or contract to which the village is a party.

SEC. 5. The treasurer shall receive all moneys belonging to the village and keep an accurate and detailed account thereof, and on the first day of July and quarterly thereafter, he shall exhibit to the village council a full and detailed account of all receipts and expenditures after the date of the last quarterly report, and also the state of the treasury, which account shall be filed by the recorder.

SEC. 6. The village marshal shall execute such orders and perform such duties as are prescribed by the village council for the collection of tolls, license money and fines, for the preservation of the public peace, for the good order, cleanliness and government of the village, and for all other purposes. He shall possess the power of a constable at law under the statutes of this state and receive like fees, and said marshal shall have the power to appoint a deputy, said marshal shall be responsible for the acts of said deputy.

SEC. 7. The village council may designate a newspaper printed in the village, in which shall be published all ordinances and other proceedings and matters required by this act, or by the by-laws or ordinances of the village council to be published in a public newspaper.

SEC. 8. The village printer or printers, immediately after publication of any notice, ordinance or resolution, or any other matter which by this act are, or by village ordinance shall be required to be published, shall file with the recorder a copy of such publication which shall be conclusive evidence of the publication of such notice, ordinance, resolution or other matters.

SEC. 9. No member of the village council shall be a party to or interested in any job or contract with the village, and any contract in which any member of the village council may be so interested, shall be null and void.

SEC. 10. The chairman, sheriff of Rice county and each and every trustee, marshal, recorder, and justice of the peace and constable of the precinct of which said village is a part, shall be officers of the peace and suppress in a summary manner all disorderly behavior within the limits of the village, and for such purposes may command the assistance of the bystanders, and if any person so commanded shall refuse to aid in maintaining the peace, every such person shall pay a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars and not less than five dollars.

SEC. 11. The village justice provided for and elected under this act shall have and possess all the powers and jurisdiction of justices of the peace provided for and elected under the general laws of the state, and in addition thereto shall have cognizance and jurisdiction of all suits, prosecutions, or proceedings, for the recovery of any fine, forfeiture, or penalty under any by-law, ordinance or regulation of said corporation, or under this act, or for the breach or violation of any such by-law, ordinance or regulation, and in all cases of offences committed against the same. All prosecutions or assaults, batteries and affrays not indictable and for a breach or violation of any by-law or ordinance or regulation shall be commenced in the name of the village of Dundas, and the same proceedings shall be had in all civil and criminal suits or prosecutions before said justice when not otherwise herein directed, as are established and are required to be had in civil and criminal actions by the general laws of the state before justices of the peace, except that no change of venue shall be taken. All fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed by or recovered before said justice, in any suit, prosecution or proceeding had and commenced in the name of said village shall be promptly paid by said justice to the treasurer of said corporation for the use thereof. The village justice shall take judicial notice of the by-laws, ordinances and regulations of said corporation, and it shall not be necessary in any action, civil or criminal, before said justice, to plead or refer [to] the same in any manner whatever in any pleading or complaint; but said by-laws, ordinances and regulations shall in said justice court be held and deemed to be public law. The village justice shall at least once in three months, make to the village council a full report of all moneys received by him for fines, forfeitures and penalties, and shall pay them into the hands of the treasurer taking his receipt therefor. In all cases of convictions for assaults, batteries and affrays within said village for breaches of the peace, disorderly conduct, keeping houses of ill-fame or frequenting the same, and of keeping or maintaining disorderly and ill governed houses, the said justice shall have power in addition to the fine or penalty imposed, to compel such offenders to give security for their good behavior and to keep the peace for a period not exceeding six months and in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars. The said justice shall have the same power and authority in case of contempt as a court of record. In case of the absence, sickness or other inability of said justice, or for any sufficient reason, the chairman, by warrant may authorize any other justice of the peace within said town to perform the duties of said village justice, and it shall thereupon be the duty of the chairman to inform the village attorney and marshal of such substitution, and make report thereof to the village council, and they may confirm or set aside such appointment, or appoint some other justice of the peace, and the justice of the peace so appointed shall, for the time being, possess all the authority, powers and rights of the said village justice. All fines and penalties imposed by the village justice for offences committed within the village limits, or for violation of any ordinance, by-law or regulation of said village, shall belong to and be a part of the finances of said village. In case of prosecution for a breach or violation of an ordinance, by-law or regulation of said corporation or of this act, or for an assault, battery or affray not indictable, committed within the limits of said corporation, no appeal shall be allowed when the judgment or fine imposed, exclusive of costs, is less than twenty dollars. The fees of the village justice shall be the same as allowed and fixed by the general laws of the state for justices of the peace. All warrants, writs and processes of every nature issued by the village justice shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, and may be executed or served by the appointed marshal under the provisions of this act, or by the sheriff or any constable of said county, and for such purpose said officers shall have and possess the same power and authority, which by the general laws of the state they have and possess in the execution or service of warrants, writs and other process issued by justices of the peace elected under such general laws.

SEC. 12. The village council shall have power from time to time to require other and further duties to be performed by any officer whose duties are herein prescribed, and to appoint such other officers as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and to prescribe their duties. The village council may at any time fix the compensation of any officer or committee for any extraordinary service by them performed.

CHAPTER IV.

SECTION 1. The village council shall have control and management of the finances and of all the property of the village and the said council shall likewise have full power and authority to make, enact, ordain, establish, publish, enforce, alter, modify, correct and repeal all such ordinances and by-laws for the government and good order of the village, and for the suppression of vice as they shall deem expedient, and declare and impose penalties by fine and imprisonment or both, and to enforce the same against any person or persons who may violate any provisions of such ordinances, rules and by-laws, and such ordinance, rules and by-laws are hereby declared to be and have the full force of law, for these purposes shall have authority by ordinances, resolutions, or by-laws, provided, That they be not repugnant to the constitution of the United States, or of this state.

Fourth—To compel the owner or occupant of any grocery, cellars, tallow chandlers' shop, soap factory, tannery, stable, barn, privy, sewer, or other unwholesome or nauseous house or place to clean, remove or abate the same. To remove and abate any nuisance injurious to the public health and safety, or repugnant to morality, decency and good order, and to provide for the punishment of all persons who shall cause or maintain such nuisance. To prescribe what [shall] constitute nuisances, and provide for the removal or abatement thereof, either under the ordinance or at common or statute law.

Fifth—To direct the location and management of slaughter houses and markets in said village, and to regulate the storage, keeping and conveying of gunpowder inflammable oils, or other combustible materials.

Sixth—To prevent the incumbering of streets, sidewalks, lanes and alleys.

Seventh—To prevent immoderate riding or driving in the streets.

Eighth—To prohibit the running at large of dogs, to authorize the destruction of the same when at large contrary to the ordinances, and to impose fines upon their owners.

Ninth—To prevent any person from bringing, depositing or having within the village any putrid carcass or other unwholesome substance, and to require the removal of the same by a competent officer at the expense of such person or persons.

Tenth—To make and establish public pounds, pumps, water cisterns and reservoirs, to erect lamps or other means whereby to light the village, to regulate and license hacks, cabs, drays, carts, and charges of hackmen, coachmen, draymen and cartmen of the village.

Eleventh—To prevent damage to sidewalks.

Twelfth—To prevent the shooting of fire-arms, crackers and other projectiles, and to prevent the exhibition of any fireworks in any situation which may be deemed by the council dangerous to the village or any property therein, or annoying any citizen thereof.

Thirteenth—To restrain drunkards, immoderate drinking of intoxicating beverages, brawling and obscenity in the streets or public places.

Fourteenth—To license and regulate peddlers, runners, public houses, and to regulate all public institutions of the village.

Fifteenth—To regulate the place and manner of selling. And to provide for the inspection and weight of hay and coal, and measuring charcoal, firewood and other fuel.

Sixteenth—To compel the owners or occupants of buildings or grounds to remove snow, dirt or rubbish from the sidewalks, streets or alleys opposite thereto, and in his default to authorize the removal or destruction thereof by some officer of the village at the expense of the owner or occupant.

Seventeenth—To prevent the introduction of contagious diseases into the village.

Eighteenth—To license persons who shall offer or cause to be offered, any goods, wares, merchandise, or other property for sale at auction or public outcry, in said village, and may charge thereon not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, in their discretion, and whoever shall offer or cause to be offered such property without such license or under cover of license granted to any other person shall forfeit one hundred dollars to said village, but this subdivision shall not apply to the sheriff or other officer in the discharge of official duty.

Nineteenth—To appropriate money and provide for the payment of the debts and expenses of the village.

Twentieth—To abolish, open, widen, grade, repair, or otherwise improve or keep in repair streets, avenues, lands and alleys.

Twenty-first—To establish, regulate and support night watches, when needed.

Twenty-second—To provide for the erection of all needful buildings for the use of the village.

Twenty-third—To provide for the enclosing, improving and regulating of the public grounds belonging to the village and for the adorning of the streets thereof with shade trees.

Twenty-fourth—To provide for the taking from time to time the enumeration of the inhabitants of the village.

Twenty-fifth—To prescribe the limits within which wooden buildings, or buildings of other material that shall not be deemed fire-proof, shall not be erected, placed or repaired.

Twenty-sixth—To prevent the dangerous construction, placing and conditions of chimneys, fire-places, hearths, stove pipes, ovens, boilers and appurtenances used in or about any buildings, and cause the same to be removed, or placed in a safe and secure condition when considered dangerous, and to prevent the deposit of ashes in unsafe places, and to regulate and prevent the carrying on of manufactures, dangerous in causing or promoting fires, within the village limits.

Twenty-seventh—To assess or tax any merchant or mercantile establishment offering manufactured articles for sale and commencing business between the first day of August and the first of June following, such an amount as is paid by similar establishments in said village as the regular yearly tax for the same year, said tax to be paid into the village treasury.

Twenty-eighth—To prevent the Milwaukee and St. Paul and Minneapolis, or any other railway company, from obstructing the street crossing for a time exceeding ten minutes, accidents excepted; for every such offence a fine of not more than one hundred dollars may be imposed and collected.

Twenty-nine—The village council shall have power to authorize the formation of fire companies, hook and ladder, hose companies, and to provide for the due support and regulation of the same, and to order such companies to be disbanded and their apparatus to be delivered up. Each member of every such company shall be exempt from a poll tax and from serving on juries during the continuance of such membership.

Thirtieth—The village council shall have power to enact any other by-law, or to do any other act, necessary and proper to perform the duties contemplated by this act.

Thirty-first—The council shall have the exclusive right to license persons vending or dealing in spirituous, vinous, malt or fermented liquors within the limits of said village, and persons licensed by the council shall not be required to obtain a license from the board of county commissioners, and shall not be prosecuted for selling or disposing of spirituous, vinous, malt or fermented liquors without first having obtained license therefor agreeably to the provisions of the general statutes.

SEC. 2. All laws, ordinances, regulations and by-laws, shall be passed by an affirmation vote of the majority of the village council, and be signed by the chairman and recorder, and shall be published in the official paper of the village, or posted for ten days in three of the most public places in the village.

SEC. 3. The village council shall examine and adjust the accounts of all village affairs, and agents of the village, at such time as they may deem proper, and if any such officer or agent shall refuse to comply with the order of said council in the discharge of their duties in pursuance of this section, the council shall declare the office of such person vacant, and may commence suit or proceedings at law against any such officers or agent who may be found delinquent or defaulting on his account, or in the discharge of his official duties. The council shall make full record of all such settlements and adjustments.

SEC. 4. They may appoint any number of special constables for extraordinary occasions, and they shall constitute a village police, and shall have the usual powers, and shall be under the immediate control of the marshal, who shall be the chief of police, and the whole shall be made under the control (of) and subject to the village council.

SEC. 5. The cost and expenses of surveying the streets, lanes, alleys, sidewalks, sewers, public grounds, reservoirs, cisterns, drains, and the erection of buildings for village purposes, and of cleaning and repairing the same, and constructing and repairing reservoirs and sewers, street crossings and cross-walks, may be paid out of the general fund, or reservoirs may be built by districts designated by the village council; the expense of sidewalks shall be paid out of village treasury; sewers may be built and the expenses apportioned by the village council among the lots and parcels of land benefited thereby. All resolutions or orders directing such improvements shall be filed and recorded by the recorder.

SEC. 6. All work by the village shall be let by contract to the lowest bidder, and the village council may require a bond with sureties for the faithful performance of the contract. Not less than ten days notice shall be given of the letting of the contract by the posting notices by the recorder in two public places in the village, to be signed by the chairman, and also filing said notice with the said recorder at the same time.

SEC. 7. All property, real and personal, in the village, except such as may be exempt by the laws of the state, or is village property, shall be subject to taxation not exceeding three mills on the dollar per year, for general purposes.

SEC. 8. The village council shall report to the auditor of Rice county the amount of general taxes levied on the village, and it shall be the duty of the county auditor to assess taxes in the assessment roll of the town of Bridgewater, and the same shall be collected by the county treasurer, or returned by him as delinquent, and all proceedings in relation thereto, including the selling, conveying and redeeming property, shall be the same as in proceedings on account of other taxes. All residents of the village shall pay a village tax on their personal property, wherever situated, proportionally with their real estate tax.

SEC. 9. In all prosecutions of any violation of this act or any by-law or ordinance of the village of Dundas, the first process shall be a warrant, provided, That no warrant shall be necessary in any case of the arrest of any person or persons while in the act of violating any law of the state of Minnesota or ordinance of the village of Dundas, but the person or persons so arrested may be proceeded against, tried, convicted, and punished or discharged in the same manner as if the arrest had been by warrant.

SEC. 10. No person shall be an incompetent judge, justice, witness or juror by reason of his being an inhabitant of said village in any proceeding or action in which the village of Dundas shall be a party in interest.

SEC. 11. All legal voters within the limits of said village shall be entitled to vote at general town meetings of the town of Bridgewater for town officers and on questions relating to highways, overseers, bridges and all expenditure of money.

SEC. 12. If any election by the people, or village council shall, for any cause not be held at the time, nor in the manner herein prescribed, it shall not be considered reason for arresting, suspending or absolving said corporation, but such election or organization may be had on such subsequent day, by order of the village council; and if any of the duties enjoined by this act, or the ordinances or by-laws of the village, to be done by any officer at any specified time, and the same are not so done or performed, the village council may appoint another time at which the said act may be done and performed.

SEC. 13. The said village may lease, purchase and hold real and personal estate sufficient for all municipal purposes thereof, and may sell and convey the same, and the same shall be free from taxation.

SEC. 14. The village of Dundas shall not be liable in any case, for the board or jail fees, of any person who may be committed by any officer of the village, or any magistrate, to the jail of Rice county, for any offence punishable under the state laws.

SEC. 15. The board of the trustees, when acting as inspectors of election, shall receive the same compensation as fixed by the laws of the state.

SEC. 16. No law of this state, contravening the provisions of this act, shall be considered as repealing, amending or modifying the same, unless such purpose be expressly set forth in such law.

SEC. 17. This act is a public act and need not be pleaded nor proven in any court in this state.

SEC. 18. This act shall not interfere with the duties of the town supervisors of the town of Bridgewater in laying out, altering or establishing highways, building and repairing bridges within the limits of the village of Dundas nor shall any inhabitant or property therein be exempt from taxation by the town for general town purposes. The election of the town officers for the town of Bridgewater shall be held as heretofore.

SEC. 19. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, provided, That if fifteen of the legal voters of the district in the second section of this act described as the village of Dundas shall petition the canvassers within this act named, or before the third Tuesday of March A. D. one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, for an election to determine whether the people in said district desire this act of incorporation to take effect as and at the time set forth in the provisions thereof upon presentation of such petition to said canvassers, they shall fix and appoint the fourth Tuesday of March A. D. one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine for such election, and shall give five days' notice thereof by posting notices thereof in three of the most public places in said district. At said election ballots shall be cast and votes counted by said canvassers appointed by this act the same as for the officers in said village as in this act, provided

The ballots used at such election shall have written or printed thereon, "for village charter," or "against village charter," as the case may be. Said canvassers shall declare the result, and if they declare that a majority of the votes cast were for "village charter," or if the petition in this section referred to and provided for should not be presented to said canvassers as herein provided, then in such case this act shall be and remain in full force and effect.

But if a majority of said votes are against "village charter," then in such case no further action or election under this act shall be taken for one year, when similar proceedings may again be taken. The polls of this election in this section provided for shall be opened at 10 o'clock A. M., and close at 4 o'clock P. M. of said day.

Approved March 11, 1879.

CHAPTER XIV.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE VILLAGE OF BLUE EARTH CITY, FARIBAULT COUNTY, MINNESOTA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. All that part of the township of Blue Earth City, in the county of Faribault and state of Minnesota included within the following described territory, to wit: The south half of the southeast quarter of section seven, the south half of section eight, the west half of the west half of section sixteen, all of section seventeen, the east half of the east half of section eighteen, and
