county for their approval or rejection, at a special election to be held for that purpose in said Marshall county on the second (2nd) Monday in July, A. D. eighteen hundred eighty-three (1883), at the regular polling places in said county. Notice of said election and its purpose shall be given as is required by law for general elections. Provided, that a refusal or neglect to give such notice shall not invalidate any election that may be held by virtue of this act. At said election the electors who are in favor of the provisions of section one (1) of this act, shall have written or printed on their ballots: "For attaching territory to and establishing the southern boundary line of Marshall county." And those opposed to said provisions: "Against attaching territory to and establishing the southern boundary line of Marshall county." And the votes shall be canvassed and returned in the manner provided for canvassing and returning votes for State officers.
