CHAPTER 196.

AN ACT RELATING TO THE COLLECTION OF JUDGMENTS.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

How judgments
may be recovered against any city, village or borough.

SECTION 1. When a judgment is recovered against any city, village or borough in this state, no execution shall issue on such judgment, but the same if for the recovery of money shall be paid by the treasurer of such city, village or borough upon demand, and the delivery to him of a certified copy of the docket of such judgment from any moneys in his hands belonging to such city, village or borough and which has not been otherwise appropriated, and if such treasurer shall not have sufficient of such moneys in his hands to pay such judgment then such treasurer shall pay upon such judgment so much of such moneys as shall be in his hands, and such treasurer shall hereafter retain all such moneys as he may receive and pay the same to the owner of such judgment on demand until such judgment be fully paid, and if such treasurer fails so to pay such judgment, he and his bondsmen shall be personally liable for the amounts not so paid, unless the collection of such judgment is stayed on appeal; Provided, That the treasurer of said city, village or borough shall retain of the moneys belonging to the same a sum sufficient to pay the necessary current expenses of said city, village or borough.

To levy a tax
for the purpose
of paying judgments, when
deemed necessary.

SEC. 2. Whenever a judgment against a city, village or borough remains unpaid at the time required by law for the officers of any city, village or borough to levy taxes to be collected in such city, village or borough for the ensuing year, it shall be the duty of such officers to levy the amount of such judgment in addition to any other taxes levied by them and to certify the same and the purpose thereof to the county auditor, who shall extend the amount of such judgment upon the taxable property of such city, village or borough, and the same shall be collected with the other taxes for that year, and the amount so collected shall
