practice.

SECTION 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person who is not at the time of the passage of this act engaged in the practice of dentistry in this state to commence such practice unless he or she shall have obtained a certificate as hereinafter provided.

Board of examiners to be created—how.

SEC. 2. A board of examiners, to consist of five (5) practicing dentists, is hereby created, whose duty it shall be to carry out the purposes, and enforce the provisions of this act. The members of said board shall be appointed by the governor, who shall select them from ten (10) candidates whose names shall be furnished him by the State Dental Association. At least three (3) members of said board shall be members of the State Dental Association. The term for which the members of said board shall hold their offices shall be five (5) years, except that the members of the board first to be appointed under this act shall hold their offices for the term of one (1), two (2), three (3), four (4), and five (5) years respectively, and until their successors shall be duly appointed. In case of a vacancy occurring in said board such vacancy shall be filled by the governor from the names presented to him by the Minnesota State Dental Association. It shall be the duty of the Minnesota State Dental Association to present twice the number of names to the governor, of those to be appointed.

Vacancy, how filled.

SEC. 3. Said board shall choose one of its members president, and one the secretary thereof, and it shall meet at least once in each year and as much oftener and at such times and places as it may deem necessary. A majority of said board shall at all times constitute a quorum, and the proceedings thereof shall at all reasonable times be open to public inspection.

Selection of officers for board—quorum.

SEC. 4. Within six (6) months from the time that this act takes effect, it shall be the duty of every person who is at that time engaged in the practice of dentistry in this state to cause his or her name and residence or place of business to be registered with said board of examiners, who shall keep a book for that purpose. The statement of every such person shall be verified under oath before a notary public or justice of the peace in such manner as may be prescribed by the board of examiners. Every person who shall so register with said board as a practitioner of dentistry may continue to practice the same as such, without incurring any of the liabilities or penalties provided in this act, and shall pay to the board of examiners for such registration a fee of one (1) dollar. It shall be the duty of the board of examiners to forward to the clerk of the court of each county in the state a certified list of the names of all persons residing in his county who have registered in accordance with the provisions of this act, and it shall be the duty of all clerks to register such names in a book to be kept for that purpose.

Persons doing business to register—under oath.

SEC. 7. In order to provide the means for carrying out and maintaining the provisions of this act, the said board of examiners may charge each person applying to or appearing before them for examination for a certificate of qualification a fee of ten dollars ($10), which fee shall in no case be returned, and out of the funds coming into the possession of the board from the fees so charged the members of said board may receive as compensation the sum of five dollars ($5) for each day actually engaged in the duties of their office, and all legitimate and necessary expenses incurred in attending the meetings of said board; said expenses shall be paid from the fees and penalties received by the board under the provisions of this act, and no part of the salary or other expenses of the board shall ever be paid out of the state treasury. All moneys received in excess of said per diem allowance and other expenses above provided for shall be held by the secretary of said board as a special fund for meeting the expenses of said board and carrying out the provisions of this act, he giving such bond as the board shall from time to time direct. And said board shall make an annual report of its proceedings to the governor by the fifteenth (15th) of December of each year, together with an account of all moneys received and disbursed by them pursuant to this act.

SEC. 8. Any person who shall receive a certificate of qualification from said board shall cause his or her certificate to be registered with the clerk of the court of any county or counties in which such persons may desire to engage in the practice of dentistry, and the clerks of the court of the several counties in the state shall charge for registering such certificate a fee of twenty-five (25) cents for such registration. Any failure, neglect or refusal on the part of any person holding such certificate to register the same with the clerk of court as above directed for a period of six (6) months, shall work a forfeiture of the certificate, and no certificate when once forfeited shall be restored, except upon the payment to the said board of examiners of the sum of twenty-five (25) dollars as a penalty for such neglect, failure or refusal.

SEC. 9. Any person who shall knowingly and falsely claim or pretend to have or hold a certificate of license, diploma or degree granted by any society, or who shall falsely and with intent to deceive the public, claim or pretend to be a graduate from any incorporated dental college, not being such graduate, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be liable to the same penalty as provided in section six (6) of this act.

SEC. 10. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage. When act to take effect.

Approved March 3, 1885.

CHAPTER 200.

AN ACT FOR AN ACT TO PREVENT THE SPREAD OF CONTAGIOUS OR INFECTIOUS DISEASES AMONG "CATTLE," HORSES AND OTHER DOMESTIC ANIMALS.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. The local board of health of towns, villages and cities, in case of existence in this state of the disease called pleuro-pneumonia among cattle, or farcy or glanders among horses, or any other contagious or infectious disease among domestic animals, shall cause the animals in their respective towns, villages or cities, which are infected, or which have been exposed to infection, to be secured or collected in some suitable place or places within their respective towns, villages or cities, and kept isolated; and when taken from the possession of their owners one-fifth ( $\frac{1}{5}$ ) of the expense of their maintenance shall be paid by the town, village or city wherein the animal is kept, and four-fifths ( $\frac{4}{5}$ ) by the state; such isolation to continue as long as the existence of such disease or other circumstances may render it necessary. Animals infected with contagious diseases, to be kept isolated—expenses how paid.

SEC. 2. The said local boards of health, when any such animal is adjudged by a veterinary surgeon or physician, by them selected, to be infected with any contagious or infectious disease, may in their discretion order such diseased animal to be forthwith killed and buried at the expense of such town, village or city. Animals may be killed—when.

SEC. 3. The said local boards of health may cause all such animals that have been within the state for six (6) months next preceding the adjudication mentioned in section two (2) to be appraised by three (3) competent and disinterested men under oath, at the value thereof at the time of the appraisement, and in making such appraisement the appraisers shall take into consideration the fact of the existence of such disease in such animals, and the amount of the appraisement shall be paid as provided in section one (1), except as provided in section fifteen (15) of this act. Damages, how appraised.

SEC. 4. The said local boards of health may, within their respective towns, villages and cities, prohibit the departure Animals infected prohibited from departure, etc
