

CHAPTER 163.

[H. F. No. 412].

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR COMPILING, REVISING AND DIGESTING [THE] TAX LAWS OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. As soon after the close of the present session of the Legislature as possible, it shall be the duty of the attorney general and the state auditor to compile, digest and collate the tax laws of the state, or cause the same to be done under their direction.

Compilation of tax laws.

SEC. 2. The compilation, digesting and revision provided for in section one (1) of this act shall be arranged and put under appropriate heads for convenient reference with copious and full index and table of cases digested; the digesting to embrace all of the decisions of the Supreme Court of Minnesota on taxation and assessment, and the means of enforcing their collection up to the present time.

Indexed and tabulated.

SEC. 3. Said compilation of the tax laws shall be of convenient size and bound in cloth.

SEC. 4. The volumes furnished the state shall be distributed as follows: One (1) copy each to the several county auditors and county attorneys of the state; one (1) copy each to the several departments of state; and one (1) copy each to the judges of the Supreme Court and District Courts of the state; and the remainder to be deposited with the secretary of state for future distribution. All of the copies sent to the above enumerated officers shall be by them turned over to their successors in office, at the expiration of their several terms of office.

Printing and distribution.

SEC. 5. The sum of three hundred (300) dollars or so much of that amount as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to pay for the work mentioned in the first section of this act; and the work of printing, publishing and binding said compilation shall be done under direction and supervision of the secretary of state, and said compilation shall be sold to parties not entitled to a copy under the provisions of this act, at a price not exceeding seventy-five (75) cents.

Appropriation.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

When act to take effect.

Approved March 5, 1887.