

thirty-seven (337) of the Special Laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine (1879), and to provide for the appointment of a county superintendent of schools for Dakota county," approved February twenty-seventh (27th), one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five (1885), be and the same is hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. Hereafter all and singular the provisions of Chapter thirty-six (36) of the General Statutes of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight (1878) and all acts amendatory thereto, relating to the election, salary, term of office, powers and duties of county superintendent of schools, shall apply to and be in force in Dakota county.

Provided, however, that the county auditor shall not issue his certificate of election to any person who may appear to have received the highest number of votes cast at any election for the office of county superintendent of schools in and for said county until the said party has first produced and filed with said county auditor a first (1st) grade teacher's certificate, from the proper authority, showing that he has within two (2) years successfully passed an examination, either before or after such election, in the studies enumerated in existing laws of the state, as necessary for the obtaining of such first (1st) grade teacher's certificate.

SEC. 3. The provisions of this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage; Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to abridge the term of office of the present incumbent; that is, the present incumbent shall hold said office until the first (1st) Monday in the month of January, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (1893), or until his successor shall be elected and qualified.

Approved April 20, 1891.

CHAPTER 358.

[S. F. No. 698.]

AN ACT TO REPEAL CHAPTER FOUR HUNDRED (400) OF THE SPECIAL LAWS OF ONE THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-ONE (1881), AND TO AMEND SECTION FOUR (4) OF CHAPTER THREE HUNDRED AND NINETY-FOUR (394) OF THE SPECIAL LAWS OF ONE THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-SEVEN (1887) RELATING TO SALARY AND DUTIES OF COUNTY TREASURER OF DAKOTA COUNTY.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That Chapter four hundred (400) of the Special Laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one (1881) be and the same is hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. That section four (4) of Chapter three hundred and ninety-four (394) of the Special Laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven (1887), relating to the salary and duties of county treasurer, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

The salary and compensation of the treasurer of said county shall be the sum of two thousand six hundred and sixty (2,660) dollars per annum, and out of said sum shall be paid clerk hire for all persons so employed by said county treasurer; and no other sum, except as hereinafter provided, shall be paid to said county treasurer for clerk hire, postage, stationery or otherwise, for any duty performed in the discharge of his office.

It shall be the duty of the said treasurer, at his own proper cost and expense, to make, or cause to be made, duplicates of the tax lists delivered to him by the auditor of said county each year, for each town in said county, excepting the towns of Nininger, Vermillion, Hampton, Marshan, Douglas, Ravenna and Hastings, the blank books therefor to be furnished by the county; and the said duplicate tax lists shall, when not in use by said treasurer, be deposited by said treasurer, at his own proper risk and expense, with suitable persons or corporations in the city of South St. Paul and the village of Farmington, in said county, and in the city of Northfield, in Rice county, Minnesota, said duplicate lists to be so distributed between said points as will best accommodate the taxpayers of towns adjacent thereto and said towns, or at other points as the board of county commissioners of said Dakota county may direct; said duplicate lists to remain so deposited at said points until the tenth (10th) day of June of each year; and all taxes received at said points or other points shall be with no charge or expense to the party paying such tax, and free of cost, risk or expense to the said county of Dakota.

Provided, that the said board of county commissioners shall have power, at their annual meeting in July of each year, to designate any town or towns in the county which shall be visited by the county treasurer for the purpose of collecting taxes, upon it being shown, to the satisfaction of said commissioners, that the taxpayers of the said town or towns be reasonably accommodated by the depositories heretofore mentioned; and the necessary actual cost and expenses of the said treasurer in making his visits at the direction of the board as aforesaid shall be allowed by the board and paid as other claims against the county are paid, not to exceed the sum of ten (10) dollars for any one (1) town so visited.

The treasurer shall give notice of his visits to any town or towns designated by the board of county commissioners, by publishing the same for two (2) successive weeks, in some newspaper in the county published nearest the town or towns to be visited, the cost of which notice shall be paid by the county.

SEC. 3. The provisions of this act are hereby made operative and the terms thereof considered in force from and after the first (1st) Monday of January, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one (1891).

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
