eral laws of 1885, chap. 145.

SECTION 1. That section twelve of chapter one hundred and forty-five of the general laws of 1885 be and the same is hereby amended by adding thereto the following:

Unplatted property may be detached.

Any territory within the corporate limit of any such village, not included within the platted portion thereof, may be taken out of such corporation and detached therefrom by a petition of at least thirty of the legal voters of such village, including the owner of the land which is proposed to be detached, to the county commissioners in the same manner as provided for the annexation of territory to incorporated villages, and it shall be the duty of such commissioners to proceed thereupon as in sections five, six, seven, eight and nine of chapter one hundred and forty-five of the general laws of 1885, and to give notice of the time and place within the corporate limits of such village when and where the electors thereof will vote for or against such detaching, and the ballots used shall have thereon the words, "For Detaching" or "Against Detaching;" and if the majority of the ballots cast shall be for detaching, then the said commissioners shall file with the register of deeds the original petition, notice of election and inspector's certificate, as provided in section nine of chapter one hundred and forty-five of the general laws of 1885. And said territory when so detached shall belong to and be a part of the township in which it is when so detached. Provided that such land shall not be detached as herein provided in any case where such detaching would reduce the number of inhabitants of such incorporated village below the number now required by law for the incorporation thereof.

Provided further, that the detaching of any territory from any incorporated village under the provisions of this act shall not relieve such territory of its share of any indebtedness existing against such corporation, but the said territory shall be deemed a part of such village for the purpose of taxation imposed to discharge the principal and interest of such pre-existing indebtedness, until the same shall have been fully discharged.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
