CHAPTER 218.

H. F. No. 204.

An act to provide for county teachers' training schools and to repeal the fourteenth subdivision of section three of chapter 163 of the general laws of 1891.

Teachers' training schools.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. The superintendent of public instruction shall annually, as he may deem advisable, organize by and with the assistance of the several county superintendents of schools, and with the aid of skilled instructors conduct, training schools for the benefit of teachers who purpose teaching in the schools of the state, but are unable to attend a full course at a state normal school. Such schools shall be without charge for attendance and entirely practical; their object being to impart methods of teaching, especially in common schools. They shall continue for at least four and not more than six weeks at each place, and the average cost shall not exceed the rate of one hundred dollars for each week of the session of a school of sixty persons.

Superintendent of public instruction may organize.

SEC. 2. Superintendents of counties for which training schools shall be appointed under this act are hereby authorized to issue notices to teachers, print programs of exercises and make all necessary provision for the accommodation of said school in rooms and care of the same during its session; and all bills for the same shall be audited, and, if found reasonable and just, shall be paid by the commissioners of the county or counties for which the school was appointed.

County superintendents to notify teachers.

SEC. 3. To defray the expenses of instruction in the training schools provided for in this act, twenty thousand dollars are hereby annually appropriated out of any moneys in the revenue fund or that may come into it hereafter. Said money shall be paid to the superintendent of public instruction each month on duly certified expense lists, and said superintendent shall prepare or cause to be prepared an expense list for expense incurred during the month under the above named appropriation, showing the name of each person rendering service or furnishing supplies, the nature of the service rendered and at what rate, the quantity, kind, price and cost of supplies, and the amount to which each person is entitled by law. Vouchers for services rendered or labor performed and bills for supplies furnished shall be filed with the state auditor by the superintendent of public instruction within thirty days after the payment of the same. Said expense list shall be certified by the superintendent of public instruction, and upon receipt of such certified expense list the auditor of state shall examine, adjust and approve, suspend or reject the same, and shall draw his warrant on the state treasurer for the amounts found due thereon, and no money shall be paid out of the state treasury for the use of the said training schools except on expense lists duly certified. Provided, that the auditor of state may, in his discretion, draw his warrants for an amount not exceeding twenty per cent in addition to the amount of said expense list, to be used for the payment of such accounts as are necessary to be paid immediately; said payments to be properly accounted for on the next monthly expense list.

Annual appropriation therefor.

Expense vouchers.

Repeal of appropriation of 1891.

SEC. 4. The fourteenth subdivision of section three of chapter one hundred and sixty-three of the general laws of Minnesota for the year 1891 is hereby repealed.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 17, 1893.

CHAPTER 219.

S. F. No. 234.

Minnesota troops in civil war.

An act appropriating money to defray expenses in carrying out the provisions of chapter 151, general laws of 1891 relating to the distribution of the history of the Minnesota troops in the civil war.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Minnesota:

Appropriation for postage on distribution.

SECTION 1. That the sum of twelve hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any moneys of the state, not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of meeting the necessary postage or freightage incident to the distribution of the books or volumes relating to the services of Minnesota troops in the civil and Indian wars, prepared pursuant to the provisions of chapter one hundred and fifty of the general laws of Minnesota for the year 1891.
