

CHAPTER 50.

H. F. No. 221.

An act to cure certain irregularities in the organization of private corporations under the general laws of this state.

Corporations.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That every private corporation, heretofore in good faith organized or attempted to be organized under the general laws of this state, but whose articles of incorporation have been irregularly published or for an insufficient length of time, but where the persons organizing the same have acted in good faith, and corporate meetings have been held, and business transacted, and such de facto corporation has acted in all things as though there were no errors or omissions in its organization, the same is hereby declared to be in law a valid and legal corporation de jure, and shall be so deemed and held in all courts, and as to all transactions past and future, and the liabilities of the stockholders and incorporators shall be those of a corporation de jure and the same as though there was no defect in its organization.

Irregular publication of articles legalized.

Provided this act shall not affect any action at law now pending.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 18, 1893.

CHAPTER 51.

H. F. No. 77.

An act to provide for change of venue in civil actions in municipal courts in counties having more than one municipal court.

Municipal courts.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That, where in any county of this state there are two or more municipal courts having jurisdiction throughout said county, the defendant or defendants in any civil action begun in any one of said courts may have a change of venue therefrom to the nearest other municipal court in said county, under the same circumstances, and upon the same conditions, as are now by law provided for changing the venue in courts of justices of the peace.

Change of venue.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 17, 1893.
