CHAPTER 78.

H. F. No. 474.

Lien upon logs and timber.

An act to amend section seventy-five, title six, chapter thirty-two of the general statutes of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Minnesota:

Amending statutes of 1878,
chap. 31, sec. 75.

SECTION 1. Section seventy-five of title six, chapter thirty-two, General Statutes of one thousand eight hundred seventy-eight, be and the same hereby is amended so as to read as follows:

Assignment of lien.

Any person having a claim upon logs or timber as provided in this act, may assign the same in writing to any person, either before or after the making and filing of the statement therefor as provided in section sixty-four of this act, and the person to whom such claim may be assigned, his agent or attorney, may make and file for record the statement for a lien therefor as provided in said section sixty-four in case no such statement thereof has been filed. And when such statement, as provided for in section sixty-four of this act, and the assignment provided for in this section, has been made and filed in the office of the surveyor general of the lumber district in which said logs are situated, said person to whom said assignment is made shall be subrogated to all the rights of the original claimant, and is hereby authorized to enforce the lien against said logs or timber, in his own name, in the same manner and with the same effect, as the original claimant could have done had not such assignment been made. And any person holding the title to such logs or timber, or any lien by mortgage or otherwise thereon, as security for the payment of any sum as stumpage thereon, may, in like manner, purchase and take an assignment of any or all of such claims for labor, or may pay and discharge the same, and in either case may tack the same to his original claim, and hold the same as an additional incumbrance thereon, and may enforce the payment of the same, with interest in like manner as his original claim thereon; but in no case shall he be required to pay more than the reasonable and current value of such labor.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 17, 1893.
