Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section forty-one of chapter one hundred and forty-five of the general statutes of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five shall be amended so as to read as follows:

Powers of village justices of the peace and constables—duties.

Sec. 41. The justices of the peace and constables of said village shall have and may exercise, in addition to the powers and authority herein specially granted to such officers, all the powers, authority and jurisdiction in any case possessed by a justice of the peace or a constable elected in the county or counties in which such village is situated.

They shall take the same oath of office as is now required of township justices of the peace and constables and shall before entering upon the discharge of their duties as such officer severally execute a bond to said village in its corporate name in the penal sum of not less than five hundred dollars ($500.00) or such larger sum as the village council of said village may direct, with one or more sufficient sureties to be approved by the president or recorder of said village, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties as such officer.

Said president or recorder shall, if such bond is approved, indorse his approval thereon, and the recorder of said village shall certify thereon that the penal sum named in such bond is in accordance with the requirements of said village council.

Said recorder shall file the bonds of such constables in his office for the benefit of any person aggrieved by acts or omissions of said constables and any person so aggrieved or the said village may maintain an action on said bond against said constables and sureties.

The said justices of the peace shall severally cause their official bonds together with their oaths of office duly certified to be filed with the clerk of the district court of the proper county for the benefit of any persons aggrieved by the acts of said justices and any person so aggrieved may maintain an action on said bonds in his own name against said justices and the sureties.

The said officers shall receive the same fees for their services as justices of the peace and constables, elected elsewhere in this state, are allowed under the general statutes of the state now or hereafter in force:

And in all cases where a village is situated in more than one county the justices of the peace and constable of such village shall have and possess all the powers and jurisdiction conferred by this act in each of the counties in which such village is situated and shall file their bonds in each of said counties.
