

CHAPTER 300.

H. F. No. 923.

An act to amend section ninety-four (94) of chapter thirty-six (36) of the general laws of 1878, as amended by chapter eighteen (18) of the general laws of 1895, relating to independent school districts.

Independent school districts.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section ninety-four (94) of chapter thirty-six (36) of the general laws of 1878, as amended by chapter eighteen (18) of the general laws of 1895, be amended to read as follows:

Amendment.

“Sec. 94. Any city, town, village or school district or any two or more school districts where each consists in whole or in part of portions of the same incorporated city, now or hereafter organized, may be organized into and established as an independent school district, in the manner and with the powers hereinafter specified; provided, first, that this title shall not apply to any township or school district containing less than five hundred inhabitants, unless said school district or school districts consist in whole or in part of one incorporated city, town or village; provided, second, that the territorial limits of no independent district hereafter organized shall exceed six (6) miles square; except that all the territory within the limits of any city in the state may be included in and constitute one school district.”

Provision for population and territorial limits.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 23, 1897.

---

CHAPTER 301.

H. F. No. 1015.

An act empowering cities to prevent fighting, brawling, assaults, batteries, disorderly noises and disorderly conduct, and to provide for the arrest and punishment of persons guilty of the same.

Cities empowered to prevent disorder and arrest guilty persons.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That every city in this state, whether incorporated under general or special law of this state, shall, in addition to all other powers and authorities now or hereafter given such city by any law of this state,