Jurors, how drawn in counties of 200,000 people.

An act regulating the manner of drawing jurors in counties having a population of over two hundred thousand.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

In December
each year
judges to draw list 200 grand
jurors and 2,000 petit
jurors.

SECTION 1. In all counties having a population of more than two hundred thousand the judges of the district court or a majority thereof of the district embracing such county or counties shall, annually, on some day during the month of December of every year, at the court house in said county, select from the qualified electors of said county two hundred persons properly qualified to serve as grand jurors, and two thousand persons properly qualified to serve as petit jurors, and shall make out separate lists thereof, which lists shall be certified by said judges, or a majority of them, and forthwith deliver to the clerk of the district court of said county; and from said lists of persons to serve as grand jurors and as petit jurors shall respectively be drawn all grand jurors and petit jurors at any time required for the transaction of business in the district court of said county; provided, that if in any year such selection and lists shall not be made in the month of December, the same may be done at any time thereafter that any judge of said court may designate; and if from any cause there shall be a deficiency of persons resident in said county and properly qualified in either of such lists, such judges, or a majority thereof, may, at any time designated by them, select from such qualified electors of said county other persons to cover such deficiency, and in like manner may certify and deliver to such clerk lists of the persons so selected, which supplementary or additional lists shall thereafter stand as parts of the original list; and provided further, that the validity or legality of such selection or lists shall not be affected by the fact that any person or persons so selected may be disqualified from serving as grand or petit jurors, or by the selection of a greater or less number of persons than as specified in this act.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after July 1, 1899.
