Taxes; collection of in certain cases.

An act to provide for the collection of taxes in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Taxes levied on improved lots to be lien upon lots and buildings jointly and severally.

SECTION 1. Any and all taxes levied and assessed against any lot or lots in any town or village in this state upon which there is a building or buildings erected and standing at the time of the assessment thereof, the same not being personal property, are a lien upon said lot or lots, and building or buildings, jointly, and severally, for the payment of such taxes, and in case of the removal of such building or buildings from said lot or lots after such assessment, and before such taxes shall have been paid, the said lien shall extend, and continue, to said building or buildings upon the premises to which the same shall have been removed in proportion to the total value of such lot or lots with such building or buildings, standing thereon, at the time of such assessment, and the said building or buildings, shall be liable, together with such lot or lots, for the payment of such taxes, the same as though they had not been removed from said lot or lots.

SEC. 2. When it shall have been ascertained that said building or buildings, have been removed from said lot or lots, the county treasurer of the county in which said lot or lots are situated, shall cause due notice of the existence of the lien aforesaid to be served upon the owner or occupant of the said building or buildings, upon the lot or lots, to which the same have been removed, and thereupon make demand of him for the payment of the proportionate amount of the taxes due upon said lot or lots, with the building or buildings standing thereon at the time of such removal, according to the value of said building or buildings, and lot or lots together, and shall proceed to collect said proportionate amount of such tax of, and out of, said building or buildings, in the manner prescribed by law for the collection of taxes on personal property.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 13, 1899.

Removal of buildings; duty of county treasurer to give notice of lien and collect same.
