Railroad
companies.

An act to amend section one (1) of chapter ninety-four (94) of the General Laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one (1881), entitled "An act to authorize any railroad company to lease, purchase or in any way to become owner of, or to control, or any other railroad corporation, or to consolidate therewith."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Sec. 2714, G.
S. 1894,
amended.

SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 94 of the General Laws of 1881, being section 2714, General Statutes 1894, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 1. Any railroad corporation, either domestic or foreign, whether organized under a general law or by virtue of a special charter, may lease or purchase, or in any way become owner of, or control, or hold the stock of any other railroad corporation, when their respective railroads can be lawfully connected and operated together so as to constitute one continuous main line, with or without branches, and in case such lease or purchase shall be made by a foreign corporation, such corporation shall have and possess the same rights, powers and privileges and be subject to the same duties, obligations and liabilities in respect to the railroad so leased or purchased as the corporation from which such lease or purchase shall have been made.

Empowered
to lease, purchase or control other
roads when
same constitutes one
main line.

Provided, further, that any railroad so leasing or purchasing shall be subject to any law of this state now in force or hereafter enacted relating to taxation of the property so leased or purchased.

To be subject to state
laws as to taxation.

Provided, in case such lease or purchase shall be made or such ownership or control had by a foreign corporation, the same shall not be deemed complete or effectual for any purpose until such foreign corporation shall have first complied with all the laws of this state pertaining to foreign corporations.

Foreign corporations must comply with laws relating thereto.
