

houses in school districts embraced within the limits of incorporated cities having a population of less than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants," approved April 12, 1899, be and the same is amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 2. The determination of any such board or body to issue bonds under the provisions of this act shall be by resolution in writing, which resolution shall be recorded at length in the minutes of its proceedings. Provided, that no such bonds shall be issued or be valid until after the proposition to issue the same shall have been submitted to the vote of the people of said school district at a general or special election, notice of which shall be given and which shall be conducted in the same manner as elections for city officers are had under the provisions of the city charter of the city in which such school district is situate. If a majority of the voters voting at such election shall vote in favor of issuing such bonds, then said board of education may proceed to issue the same for the purpose above specified. Unless a majority of the voters voting on such proposition shall vote in favor of issuing such bonds, such bonds shall be void.

A copy of the aforesaid resolutions of the board of education may be delivered to the city clerk of said city, who shall present the same to the city council at their next meeting, and it shall thereupon be the duty of the city council of said city to order a special election to be held in said city for the purpose of voting upon the issuance of such bonds.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 17, 1899.
