

H. F. No. 514.

CHAPTER 293.

School districts; detachment of territory from.

An act to detach the lands and territory belonging to any school district in the State of Minnesota which are situated wholly within the boundaries of any other school district in said state, and which lands and territory are entirely surrounded by the territory of the school district within the boundaries of which they are situated, and which lands and territory are not contiguous to any part of the remaining territory if [of] the school district to which they belong, from the school district to which they belong, and attaching such lands and territory, which are situated wholly within the boundaries of a school district to which they do not belong, to the school district within the boundaries of which [such] lands and territory are situated.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Territory belonging to one district and within the bounds of another, etc., detached.

SECTION 1. That whenever any lands or territory, belonging to any school district in this state, are situated wholly within the boundaries of any other school district in this state, and such lands or territory are entirely surrounded by the territory of the school district within the boundaries of which they are situated, and are not contiguous to any part of the remaining territory of the school district to which they belong, such lands and territory so situated within the boundaries of a school district to which they do not belong are hereby detached from the school district to which they belong and are attached to and made a part of the school district within the boundaries of which they are situated.

Detached territory to be responsible for obligations contracted.

SEC. 2. All territory detached by this act from one school district and attached to another school district shall be held responsible for all obligations, whether bonded or otherwise, contracted by the district from which it is detached prior to the passage of this act, but shall not be held liable for the prior obligations of the district to which it is attached.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 19th, 1899.
