

CHAPTER 13.

An act to legalize the organization of certain municipal courts organized under chapter two hundred and twenty-nine (229) of the General Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five (1895).

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Legalizing municipal courts in cities of less than 5,000 organized under
ch. 220, 1895.

SECTION 1. That in all cities of less than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants in this state, where there has heretofore been organized or attempted to be organized, a municipal court under the provisions of chapter two hundred and twenty-nine (229) of the General Laws of 1895, and amendments thereto, and where the city council of such city has adopted, or attempted to adopt and accept the provisions of said chapter two hundred and twenty-nine (229), and where the officers of said court have been elected as provided in said act, and said court has been organized, and has in fact proceeded to act as a court, and to transact and carry on business as such court, such organization or attempted organization is hereby legalized and declared a valid and effectual organization of such court, and all such courts shall possess and are hereby endowed with all the rights, powers and privileges, conferred under the provisions of said act and the amendments thereto.

And all officers of such court, and all persons acting as officers of such court, shall occupy and continue to occupy their offices in like manner as if said court had been in all respects duly organized.

Provided, Nothing herein shall affect any action or proceeding now pending.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved Feb. 13, 1903.
