

CHAPTER 226.

H. F. No. 881.

An act to fix the compensation of judges of the probate court in the State of Minnesota in counties having a population of not less than one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants and not over two hundred and twenty-five thousand inhabitants.

Compensation of judges of probate in counties of 150,000 to 225,000 inhabitants fixed.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That the compensation of judges of the probate court in all counties of this state having according to the then last completed state or national census a population of not less than one hundred fifty thousand inhabitants, and not more than two hundred twenty-five thousand inhabitants, is hereby fixed at the sum of four thousand five hundred dollars per annum, which shall be paid in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury of such counties upon warrants of the county auditor.

SEC. 2. Whenever according to the then last state or national census, the population of any county of this state which now has a population of less than one hundred fifty thousand inhabitants, shall acquire not less than that number, such county shall at once become subject to the provisions of this act, and whenever, according to such census the population of any county shall exceed two hundred twenty-five thousand inhabitants, or fall under one hundred fifty thousand inhabitants, the provisions of this act at the expiration of ninety days from the final filing of the enumeration of such county shall no longer apply thereto.

SEC. 3. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 14, 1903.
