

CHAPTER 332.

S. F. No. 545.

An act authorizing the extension of the term of corporations in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. Any corporation heretofore organized under the General Laws of this state, whose original term has expired less than three years prior to the passage of this act, may, at any time during the three years allowed by law for winding up its affairs, renew its corporate existence from the date of the expiration of its original term of existence for an additional period not exceeding the original period of its existence, with the same force and effect as if renewed prior to the expiration of its original term of existence, by adopting a resolution expressing such proposed extension by a two-thirds vote of its stockholders, and by filing and publishing the same in the same manner as now provided for filing and publishing of original articles of incorporation, and by paying into the state treasury the same incorporation fees as now provided by law for filing original articles of incorporation.

Extends term of corporation in certain cases.

Filing and publishing.

Provided, that such proceedings to obtain such extension shall be taken within ninety (90) days after the passage of this act, and provided further, that this act shall not apply to any corporation which is insolvent or the charter of which has been declared forfeited by the final judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction in this state.

Within 90 days.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 21, 1903.
