CHAPTER 360.

Legalizing
conveyances heretofore made

An act to legalize conveyances heretofore made under the provisions of sections one hundred and one (101) and one hundred and two (102) chapter one (1) General Laws of Minnesota for the year one thousand and eight hundred seventy-eight (1878) and amendments thereto,

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That all deeds heretofore issued by any county auditor in the State of Minnesota under the direction of the state auditor and conveying real property purchased from the State of Minnesota under the provisions of sections 101 and 102 of chapter 1, of General Laws of Minnesota for the year 1878 and amendments thereto (section 1616 and 1617 Statutes 1894) and on which real property so conveyed the taxes then due, but not delinquent, were not included in the amount of the purchase price, are hereby legalized and made valid and effective to all intents and purposes to the same extent as if said taxes then due, but not delinquent had been added to and included in the amount paid for said real property.

Provided that in all cases where the notice of expiration provided for in section 1654, Statutes of Minnesota of 1894, has actually been given, and the full period of redemption has expired, this act shall not apply until a new notice of expiration has been given and served according to law.

SEC. 2. This act shall not affect any action now pending in any court.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 21, 1903.

CHAPTER 361.

H. F. No. 344.

An act to amend section twenty-two (22) of chapter three hundred fifty-two (352) of the General Laws of Minnesota for the year 1889, as amended by section two (2) of chapter one hundred thirty-eight (138) of the General Laws of Minnesota for 1901, relating to state aid for rural schools.

State aid for rural schools.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section twenty-two (22) of chapter three hundred fifty-two (352) of the General Laws of the State of Minnesota for 1889, as amended by section two (2) of chapter one hundred thirty-eight (138) of the General Laws of the State of Minnesota for the year of 1901, be amended as follows:

Section 22. Any common school district in this state, not entitled to state aid as a high school, graded school or semi-graded school, but fully complying with the conditions of this act relating to state rural schools, may re-
