

all services rendered by said county officers, deputies, clerks and employes, respectively, in their capacity.

SEC. 22. The board of county commissioners in counties of this state having, or which may hereafter have, a population of 200,000 inhabitants or over, shall appoint and employ such additional help for the respective offices as to them may seem just and proper in the carrying on of the work in said offices, and fix the compensation to be paid therefor.

SEC. 23. That sections one, five, fifteen, that part of section three relating to salary of the two outside deputy sheriffs, and that part of section eight relating to the salary of the second assistant county attorney, of this act, shall take effect and be in force from and after January 2, 1905.

SEC. 24. That all the provisions of this act, except said sections one, five, fifteen, and that portion of sections three and eight described in section twenty-three, shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of January, 1904, except that the provisions of section 3 of this act, relative to the employing by the sheriff of one outside deputy and one stenographer and deputy shall take effect and be in force from and after the passage of this act.

In effect
Jan. 1, 1904.

SEC. 25. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Approved April 21, 1903.

CHAPTER 366.

H. F. No. 407.

An act to amend sections fourteen (14), nineteen (19), twenty-five (25) and twenty-eight (28), chapter three hundred fifty-two (352), General Laws of Minnesota of 1899, as amended by sections two (2), three (3), four (4) and five (5) respectively, of chapter one hundred eighty-nine (189), General Laws of Minnesota of 1901, relating to certain schools.

Relating to schools.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section fourteen (14) of chapter three hundred fifty-two (352), General Laws of Minnesota of 1899, as amended by section two (2) of chapter one hundred eighty-nine (189), General Laws of Minnesota of 1901, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Apportion funds to graded schools.

Section 14. The said board shall receive applications from such schools for state aid and shall apportion to each of said graded schools which shall have complied with the provisions of this act and the rules of the board, relating to state graded schools, and whose application shall have been approved by such board, the sum of sum of five hundred fifty (550) dollars in each year.

Pro rata
among all schools.

Provided, however, that in case the amount appropriated and available under this act for the payment of aid to such schools shall in any year be insufficient to apportion to each of such graded schools as are entitled thereto the full amount of five hundred fifty (550) dollars then in such amount as is appropriated and available shall be apportioned pro rata among all the schools entitled thereto; and provided further, no graded school which shall be connected with or in the same district with a state high school shall receive any aid under the provisions of this act.

Superintendent of public instruction to apportion.

SEC. 2. That section nineteen (19) of chapter three hundred fifty-two (352), General Laws of 1899, as amended by section three (3) of chapter one hundred eighty-nine (189), of the General Laws of 1901, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 19. The said superintendent of public instruction shall apportion to each of said schools which shall have fully complied with the provisions of this act, and such rules of a general nature as may be established by him relating to semi-graded schools the sum of two hundred fifty (250) dollars in each year.

Provided, however, that in case the amount appropriated and available under this act for in payment of aid in such schools shall in any year be insufficient to apportion to each of said state semi-graded schools as are entitled thereto, the full amount of two hundred fifty (250) dollars, then in such case such amount as is appropriated and available shall be apportioned pro rata among all the schools entitled thereto.

SEC. 3. That section twenty-five (25), of chapter three hundred fifty-two (352), of General Laws of Minnesota of 1899, as amended by section 4 of chapter one hundred eighty-nine (189), General Laws of Minnesota

1901, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 25. Said superintendent of public instruction shall apportion to each of said schools fully complying with the provisions of this act and such rules of a general nature as may be established by him in relation to state-rural schools, the sum of one hundred twenty-five (125) dollars in each year; provided, however, that in case the amount appropriated and available under this act for the payment of aid to such schools shall in any year be insufficient to apportion to each of said state rural schools as are entitled thereto, the full amount of one hundred twenty-five (125) dollars, then in such case such amount as is appropriated and available shall be apportioned pro rata among all the schools entitled thereto.

$125 for
each state rural school.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 21, 1903.

CHAPTER 367.

H. F. No. 414.

An act relating to the election and qualification of county superintendents of schools in counties which contain cities having over fifty thousand inhabitants.

Election of superintendent of schools in counties of over 50,000.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. The electors residing within the corporate limits of any city having over fifty thousand inhabitants, according to the last then completed state or national census, shall hereafter take no part in the election of the county superintendent of schools for the county in which said city is situated, and the person holding said office shall not reside within the corporate limits of any such city.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 21, 1903.