

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from (on) and after its passage.

Approved April 15, 1905.

H. F. No. 656.

CHAPTER 191.

An act to permit cities containing a population of ten thousand (10,000) or less, to include within their corporate limits land (lands) lying within the limits of an adjoining county.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Lands in adjoining counties.

SECTION 1. That any city, containing a population of ten thousand (10,000) or less, whether incorporated by a general or special act, may include within its corporate limits, land (lands) which are not already incorporated, lying within an adjoining county and contiguous to the corporate limits of such city. Provided, however, that such lands shall not be within ten miles of any other incorporated city or village within this state; and provided further, that for the purposes of this act lands separated from such city by an intervening river shall be considered contiguous to the corporate limits thereof.

Resolution.

SEC. 2. The city council of such city, desiring to include within its corporate limits lands lying within an adjoining county as provided in section one of this act, shall pass a resolution describing the land (lands) desired to be included within such corporate limits, which resolution shall be submitted to the town supervisors of the town in which the said lands are included and to the board of county commissioners in which said lands are situate.

Approval of annexation.

If the supervisors of such town and the board of county commissioners of such county shall approve the said proposed annexation by resolution duly made and entered on the minutes of the town and by resolution duly made and entered on the minutes of the board of county commissioners, a duly certified copy of the resolution, together with duly certified copies of the resolution of the board of supervisors and of the board of county commissioners, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state and recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county within which said city is situate and of the county within which said lands are situate, and a copy of such record duly certified by the register of deeds shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and thereupon the said lands in said adjoining county shall become part of the said city for all purposes and be subject to the laws, ordinances and jurisdiction of said city for all purposes whatsoever, except as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 3. No territory so acquired shall at any time be subject to taxation for any indebtedness of said city incurred at any time prior to the date of such annexation. If the boundaries of the special or independent school district existing in said city, shall by the law under which said school district is organized, be co-extensive with the limits of said city, then and in that case, the said territory so included within said corporate limits under this act, shall be construed to be part of the said school district, but shall not be subject to taxation for any indebtedness incurred by said school district before the date of such annexation.

Not subject to taxation.

SEC. 4. No such territory shall be annexed, however, unless the majority of the owners thereof shall consent thereto in writing.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 15, 1905.

H. F. No. 629.

CHAPTER 192.

An act to provide for securing evidence against persons illegally disposing of intoxicating liquors and for the prosecution of such persons.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. Upon the filing of an affidavit subscribed and sworn to by a resident voter of the county, with any justice of the peace having criminal jurisdiction, or clerk of a municipal court in said county, which affidavit shall set forth upon knowledge or upon information and belief the name of any person or persons who frequent any place in said county for the purpose of obtaining intoxicating liquors, the location of such place and the name of the proprietor thereof, if known, such justice of the peace if such place is within the town or district in which he was elected, or a justice of the peace having criminal
