

CHAPTER 157—S. F. No. 144.

An Act to amend section 94 of the Revised Laws of 1905 relating to judges of the district court.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Judges to serve in other districts.—Section 1. That section 94 of the Revised Laws of 1905 be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 94. Whenever in the judgment of the governor, or of any judge of any judicial district, the convenience or interest of the public or the interest of any litigant shall require that the judge of another judicial district shall discharge any of the duties of such judge, the governor may designate, or such judge may request, a judge of the district court of any other judicial district to discharge any such duties; to hold, or to assist in holding a general or special term of such court, in any county of such judicial district other than his own, or to try and determine any motion, action or proceeding pending therein. And thereupon such judge of the district court, or any other judicial district so designated or requested, may discharge any such duties, hold or assist in holding a general or special term of such court, or try and determine any motion, action or proceeding pending therein.

And by consent of the parties any judge of said court may act in all matters brought before him from another judicial district.

In either case the acts, orders and judgments of the judge so acting shall have the same force and effect as though given by a judge of such judicial district.

When no other provision has been made therefor, the clerk shall seasonably notify the governor of the inability of the judge to hold any of his terms.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 12, 1907.
