

CHAPTER 227—H. F. No. 303.

An Act to amend section five thousand and forty-two (5042) of the Revised Laws of Minnesota, one thousand nine hundred and five (1905), relating to burglary in the second degree.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Penalty.—Section 1. That section five thousand and forty-two (5042) of the Revised Laws of Minnesota, one thousand nine hundred and five (1905), be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 5042. Every person who, with intent to commit some crime therein, shall break and enter the dwelling house of another, in which there is a human being, under circumstances not amounting to burglary in the first degree, or, any person who, with intent to commit some crime therein, shall break and enter any room or building, whether occupied by a human being at the time or not, wherein a general banking business is carried on, or any structure wherein a business of receiving public or private funds on deposit is done, shall be guilty of burglary in the second degree, and punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than ten years.

Sec. 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions hereof are hereby repealed.

Approved April 18, 1907.

CHAPTER 228—H. F. No. 306.

An Act to prohibit any junk dealer or any second hand dealer or any pawnbroker or any other person from purchasing or receiving on deposit or pledge any goods or anything of value from a minor, and providing a punishment for a violation thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Age limit.—Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any junk dealer, pawnbroker or second hand dealer to purchase or to receive on deposit or pledge any thing of value as security for a loan of money from any person, male or female, under lawful age.
