An Act to amend section 700 of Revised Laws of Minnesota for the year 1905, relating to the incorporation of villages.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Certain territory may be incorporated as a village.—Reincorporation, if declared void.—Section 1. That section seven hundred (700) of the Revised Laws of 1905 be and the same is hereby amended by striking out all of said section and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

“Section 700. Any district, section or parts of section not in any incorporated village and in the State of Minnesota, which has been platted into lots and blocks, also the lands adjacent thereto, when said plat has been duly and legally certified according to the laws of this state, and filed in the office of the register of deeds for the county in which said lands or the larger portion thereof lie, said territory containing a resident population of not more than three thousand nor less than two hundred, may become incorporated as a village in the manner hereinafter prescribed. But the unplatted part of such territory must adjoin the platted portion and be so conditioned as properly to be subjected to village government.

Provided, that any village, whose incorporation shall hereafter be declared void by judgment of court, may reincorporate under this act, notwithstanding the fact that such village does not contain two hundred inhabitants, and in such reincorporation may include all or part of the territory embraced in the original incorporation.”

Approved April 20, 1907.
